FURTHER PROGRESS MADE IN BELGIUM

150 Prisoners Taken on Right Bank of Yser Canal, Says French Report

EPERNAY, AN OPEN TOWN, BOMBARDED BY ENEMY

Belgian Artillery Aided French in Attack on German Position at Steenstraate

London, April 29.—French and Belgian artillery to-day is battering away at the German bridge-head at Steenstraate, the only point on the west bank of the Yser which the invaders have been able to hold, but there is no claim of substantial gains by either side. At the same time the British show no disposition to abandon their effort to force the Germans to yield the ground gained by them up to the present time. There is no confirmation of the rumor current that they have recaptured St. Julien.

In the expectation that the Germans will continue to use poisonous gases, the women of the British Isles are working valiantly to supply simple respirators for the men in the field, and thousands soon will be sent to the front.

Paris, April 29.—The French war office to-day gave out a report on the progress of hostilities, reading as follows:

"In Belgium we have continued to progress in conjunction with Belgian troops in a northerly direction. On the right bank of the Yser canal we took 150 prisoners as well as two machine guns.

"There is nothing new on the heights of the Meuse nor in the Vosges.

"The enemy has bombarded by means of flying machines and using incendiary shells the open town of Epernay, occupied exclusively at that time by hospital detachments.

"Definite information which has come to hand sets forth that the Zeppelin airship which eight days ago threw bombs on Dunkirk was damaged seriously by our artillery. Finding it impossible to aviate further, the machine was wrecked in the trees between Bruges and Ghent."

London, April 29.—There was given out at Belgian military headquarters to-day an official report on the progress of hostilities, which reads:

"Several points on our front, such as Ramscapelle, Pervyse, Lampernisse and Oostvleteren, have been bombarded repeatedly. The Belgian artillery has co-operated vigorously with the French in their attack against Steenstraate. Our aviators have shown great activity."

TWENTY THOUSAND AT MEMORIAL SERVICE

Impressive Scene at Parliament Hill, Ottawa, To-day; Governor-General Attended

Ottawa, April 29.—Twenty thousand people attended the impressive memorial services held on Parliament Hill this forenoon in honor of the Canadians who fell at the front.

The spectacle was an inspiring one. The troops were massed on the green sward in front, facing the natural dais or pulpit erected by the wide steps leading to the hill, upon which were gathered His Royal Highness the Governor-General and his aides, the Prime Minister and the members of the cabinet, Major-General Hughes and the members of his staff, the judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, and representatives of the Canadian navy, including Rear-Admiral Kingsmill, Commander Howe and Paymaster Pinsert. On the left were stationed the 8th Canadian Mounted Rifles, the 7th Artillery Brigade and the 43rd Infantry. On the right were the 38th and the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, while behind were the nurses in blue and red, sixty strong, and behind them the Dominion police and the firemen. On the hill not a single point of vantage was unoccupied.

Honorary Lieut.-Colonel Rev. Dr. Herridge, chaplain of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, was in charge of the service, which was brief, reverent and impressive. He referred to the gallantry of the Canadian troops at the front.

"They have not died in vain," he said. "Their heroic work has done much to tighten the bonds of Empire and the strengthen the relations of the Dominion with the Motherland."

Rev. Rural Dean Mackay, of All Saint's church, chaplain of the 43rd, read a brief prayer and the band led the assembled multitude in the singing of "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," and "Fight the Good Fight." At the conclusion "God Save the King" was sung and the troops filed in columns of twos past the steps and gave the salute. The Royal Standard floated over the hill during the ceremony.

LIEUT.-COL. CARRICK SAW EARL KITCHENER

Port Arthur, Ont., April 29.—Lieut.-Col. J. J. Carrick cables to-day from London as follows:

"Sir John French telegraphed Earl Kitchener yesterday that he was sending me over to see him (Kitchener) regarding further Canadian forces. I had a most satisfactory interview to-day with Lord Kitchener."

AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE ALLIES?

Rumored in Rome That Italy Has Reached Agreement With Britain and France

TO STRIKE WHEN GENERAL EFFORT IS BEING MADE?

Rome, April 29.—From persons in close touch with the war situation as it affects Italy, there was obtained to-day information which indicates that the government has arrived at an understanding with Great Britain and France concerning the terms upon which Italy will enter the war, if she eventually decides to do so. This information, while unofficial, is gathered from men who have made a close and careful study of the situation. The agreement is described as follows:

First—A provision for concerted military action. Italy will refrain from engaging in hostilities during the present stage of desultory trench warfare, which would enable Germany and Austria to concentrate a large part of their forces against her. She will time her blow contemporaneously with a general effort by all the opponents of the central empires now in the field.

Second—An understanding concerning the territory to be awarded to Italy in the event of victory.

Third—A provision that after the war an alliance shall be formed between Italy and the present Triple Entente of Great Britain, France and Russia.

It is intimated that at the outset Great Britain was not disposed to make terms with Italy, but that Italy firmly declined to consider joining the allies without first having reached a definite agreement with them concerning the nature and time of her co-operation, boundary readjustment after the war and permanent assistance from the allies. Italy is said to have received powerful assistance from French diplomacy in reaching the desired understanding on these points.

Rome, April 29.—Italy is continuing negotiations with the powers arrayed on both sides in the war. The diplomatic interchanges with the allies are designed definitely to clear the atmosphere with regard to what Italy would obtain should she enter the war on the side of the Triple Entente. The conversations with the central empires seem to aim chiefly at convincing Vienna and Berlin that Italy is determined to remain steadfast in her demands.

It is said to have been pointed out to Germany and Austria-Hungary that the Italian programme has not been framed by the present cabinet, which might be changed with a change in government, but is based upon the unanimous and insistent demands of the country, to which the cabinet must submit or be removed from office.

Prince von Buelow still is striving to induce Austria to make concessions and prevent Italy from becoming one of the belligerents.

A member of the government, on the other hand, when asked whether any agreement had been reached with the central empires, made the significant reply: "Nothing has been done and nothing will be done."

Deputy Barsellai, a native of Trieste, who has been elected to the chamber from Rome for the last twenty-five years, speaking of the patriotic event at Quarto Sant Elena on May 5, when a monument will be unveiled in memory of Garibaldi volunteers in the presence of the king and veterans of the War of Independence, said: "This event will be official declaration of war against Austria; it will be the challenge of the Latin to the German world."

Rome, April 29.—Prince von Buelow, special German envoy to Rome and Kaiser Wilhelm's personal representative, to-day declared that he was thoroughly satisfied with conditions in Rome. He smiled at reports from Paris that he and Baron von Macchio, the Austrian ambassador, were preparing to leave.

"I have not even dreamed of such a thing as leaving Rome," he said. "Some of the countries of Europe probably would like to see us go, but they are going to be disappointed. The relations between Germany, Austria and Italy are of the friendliest nature and will remain so."

Prince von Buelow and Baron Macchio conferred with Foreign Minister Sonnino to-day. The conference gave rise to many conflicting reports. One was that Italy would cast her lot with Austria-Hungary and Germany.

Phillips, Dartford, Eng.

Fifth Battalion—Wounded: Lance-Corporal Ernest Richard Breckell, Bournemouth, Eng.

Seventh Battalion—Wounded: Private Adolph Dudrick Jurgens, Pernan, Russia.

Lt.-Col. Hart McHarg Gave His Life For a Fellow Canadian

Vancouver, April 29.—Advices from London, England, state that Lieut.-Colonel Hart McHarg, late commander of the Seventh Battalion (First British Columbia), gave his life for a private who had been wounded and whom he wished to take to a place of safety. In the very teeth of the machine guns the gallant colonel ran to the assistance of this man, and when in the act of bringing him away, fell, mortally wounded.

RECOGNIZED NEED OF NAVY FOR AUSTRALIA

Hon. J. C. Watson Replies to Snowden's Criticism of Australian Labor Party

London, April 29.—Hon. J. C. Watson, for a short time Prime Minister of Australia, the first labor leader to hold that high post, is in London. Replying to the criticisms of Philip Snowden, the English Socialist, of the attitude of the Australian Labor party towards naval proposals, Mr. Watson says:

"If we in Australia had followed the advice of the official class there would have been no Australian navy. From the beginning of federation our labor platform included the proposal of an Australian-owned navy. It took many years' propaganda before we convinced the people of its necessity."

"During that period the British authorities tried to convince us that a tribute disguised as a subsidy was a proper contribution to naval defence. It was not until 1909 that the Admiralty gave countenance and assistance to the creation of a Pacific fleet."

MANY RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT HAGUE

The Hague, April 29.—"The declaration of war was solely man's affair; let the bringing about of peace be woman's work."

This was the great theme of the International Congress of Women to-day.

After active routine work under the unanimously chosen chairwoman, Jane Addams, who gracefully thanked the delegates for the honor they had conferred upon her, many theoretical resolutions were adopted.

PROMINENT VICTORIAN DIES AT THE FRONT

Late Captain J. Herrick McGregor Had Many Splendid Gifts

The sad news has been received in the city of the death at the front of Captain J. Herrick McGregor, a leading Victoria citizen and one who was always prominently associated with any movement concerning the city's advancement.

On the outbreak of hostilities he was among the first to offer his services, and being connected with the 50th Highlanders in the capacity of paymaster, went with the overseas detachment from that regiment to the front where he became a captain.

He received his mortal wound in the fight near Ypres, where so many brave Canadians gave up their lives for the Empire. A very wide circle of friends in the city will mourn his loss, and will extend to his bereaved family the most heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow.

A man of many and varied gifts, the late Captain McGregor found useful scope for his activities in the municipal affairs of Oak Bay, where he served for several years in the capacity of councilor, bringing to his work a wide knowledge of affairs, and much sound common-sense. He took also a deep interest in the work of the local branch of the Navy League, and was one of its most prominent organizers.

As a writer he was well known for his graceful style, his poetic gifts, and striking philosophy, which gave him a place in the front rank of Canadian authors. His latest work, "The Wisdom of Waloopi," is now on the sheives of the Victoria public library. In past years he had been a frequent contributor to this paper.

In sport the late captain took a prominent part, and during his twenty-five years' residence in Victoria was a leading figure in amateur pastimes. By profession he was a land surveyor, and a member of the firm of Gore & McGregor.

Born in Cote des Neiges, a suburb of Montreal, just over forty-six years ago, the late Captain McGregor spent his early years in Montreal, where he first took up land surveying. He came west in 1890.

He leaves a widow and four children, residing at the family home on Oak Bay avenue, to mourn his loss, as well as two bothers, one of whom, William D. McGregor, lives in Victoria. The other, James Murray McGregor, resides in London, Eng. A sister, Mrs. George Phillips, lives in Minneapolis. Mrs. William Oliphant, jr., of Ivy street, is a niece.

The flag at the Union Club building was flying half-mast to-day, as the late Captain McGregor was president of that institution when he left the city for the last time.

WHOLE BATTALION OF TURKS CAPTURED ON GALLIPOLI PENINSULA

British and French Forces Gained Victory Near Gulf of Suvla, Ten Miles North of Position Taken and Fortified Following Landing; Dardanelles Fortifications Are Being Attacked Now By Land and Sea.

London, April 29.—The capture of an entire battalion of Turks on the Gallipoli Peninsula, near the Gulf of Suvla, after an all-day battle was reported in dispatches received here to-day from Athens. Both the British and the French participated in the engagement.

The Gulf of Suvla lies south of Suvla Burnu, on the west coast of the Gallipoli Peninsula. The point of the battle was 10 miles north of the position the allies are reported officially to have taken and fortified across the peninsula, two miles from the southern base.

All dispatches to-day indicate that a second great attempt to force the Dardanelles now is in full progress, with the allies attacking the Turkish fortifications both by land and sea.

Official advices received by the British admiralty from Vice-Admiral de Robeck show that the allies have gained a solid foothold on the Gallipoli Peninsula. They have established a line of positions across the entire peninsula and these are supported by fifty machine guns and as many batteries.

London, April 29.—In a dispatch from the Athens correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company, says that the fierce fighting throughout Wednesday on the shores of Suvla Bay, on the western side of the Gallipoli Peninsula, eighteen miles north of the southern extremity, resulted in success for the allies.

The losses of the Turks were serious. One entire battalion was captured by the allies.

Athens, April 29.—Unofficial advices received here to-day confirm reports that the allies have captured a battalion of Turkish troops on the Gallipoli Peninsula. They credit the allies with a clean and overwhelming victory.

The losses on both sides are said to have been enormous. The battle raged fiercely for twelve hours, the Turks retiring under the cover of darkness.

London, April 29.—The following dispatch has been received by the Exchange Telegraph from Athens:

"The British force landed on the European coast of the Dardanelles has been entrusted solely with the mission of occupying the Gallipoli Peninsula, which has been defended by 6,000 Turks.

"The French force has been landed entirely on the Asiatic coast with the object of advancing along the littoral to keep pace with the progress made by the British on the opposite coast.

"The bombardment of the straits was resumed on Tuesday and lasted twelve hours. It was directed plainly at the Kilid Bahr forts.

"No credence is placed here in the Constantinople report that 8,000 French and British soldiers had been driven to the sea and that 12,000 others had been captured by the Turks as a result of the attempt of the allies to land forces.

London, April 29.—The Turks and the Germans maintain that the British on the west and the French on the east side of the Dardanelles are being crushed in their attempts to press forward. It is obvious that all official statements from Constantinople and Berlin bearing on the struggle at the Dardanelles not only are being censored, but are being framed with the especial purpose of exciting favorable influence on Italy and other wavering neutrals.

Constantinople, April 27.—There has been given out an official announcement bearing on the fighting at the Dardanelles which reads as follows:

"Sighi Dere, to the west of Seddel Bahr, has been cleared of the enemy.

"The enemy, who landed near Kaba Tepeh, endeavored to maintain their position under cover of their ships, but early in the morning our troops stormed the positions and forced the enemy back along the whole front, inflicting severe losses on them. Part of the enemy fled in the direction of the sea, and, taking to their boat disappeared. Those unable to escape raised the white flag and surrendered in masses.

"A transport of the enemy was sunk off Avi Burun (on the west coast of Gallipoli).

"Later reports declare that hostile forces estimated at four brigades have been driven into the sea on the coast at Kaba Tepeh."

ALIEN ENEMIES ARE BLAMED FOR FIRES

Connaught Bridge, Vancouver, Partially Destroyed; Blaze on Granville St. Bridge

DETECTIVES SEARCHING FOR THE CRIMINALS

Vancouver, April 29.—Set on fire, it is suggested, by German sympathizers, the Connaught bridge across False Creek at Cambie street, was partially destroyed early this morning.

Another fire started on Granville street bridge while the firemen were fighting the flames on Connaught bridge, but this was extinguished before it had gained headway.

The ways in which both bridges caught were identical, and the authorities are of the opinion that if was the work of incendiaries, and suspicion is pointed towards alien enemies. Detectives are now at work attempting to solve the mystery surrounding the two fires.

The fire on Connaught bridge started about 4 o'clock on the west side of the bridge, about one hundred yards to the north of the draw span, and when it was noticed by Police Constable Nesbit, who turned in the alarm, it was burning fiercely. The fire had started beneath the roadway, and when the flames broke out above the level of the bridge the fire had secured a firm hold on the underpinning of the structure.

Having no fireboat with which to combat the flames, Chief Carlisle and Assistant Chief Thompson, who responded with the apparatus from five halls, were forced to lower men on ropes with hose in an effort to fight the flames from above. This was found to be unavailing owing to the high velocity of the wind and the impossibility of steadying the men.

Great holes then were chopped in the roadway and the firemen attempted to get under the bridge on the steel birders, but this too, was difficult work, though the firemen persevered, and in this manner combatted it to the best of their ability.

BURIED IN ITALY WITH FULL HONORS

Rome, April 29.—The bodies of fifty-six of the men who lost their lives when the French cruiser Leon Gambetta was torpedoed by an Austrian submarine in the Strait of Otranto, were buried to-day with full naval honors at Santa Maria Leuca. The funeral was arranged by the officers of Italian torpedo boat destroyers. Residents of the neighborhood joined the Italian sailors in attending the services at the cemetery.

VON KLUCK RECOVERING.

Amsterdam, April 29.—General von Kluck, the German commander, who was wounded last month, is now on the road to recovery, according to the Hamburg Nachrichten. This newspaper adds that the general is able to appear in the garden of his villa, which has been converted into a hospital.

ARE EAGER TO FIGHT BESIDE CANADIANS

Desire of New Zealand's Soldiers Set Forth in Prime Minister's Message

Ottawa, April 29.—The message of congratulation sent to Canada by the prime minister of New Zealand, to which Sir Robert Borden sent a reply, was made public yesterday afternoon. It was as follows:

"On behalf of the government and people of New Zealand I desire heartily to congratulate Canada on the gallant stand made by her troops in the recent severe fighting near Ypres. The men of the Overseas Dominions are proving themselves worthy scions of the old stock, which down through strenuous centuries has produced a strong and united empire whose bulwarks are liberty and freedom.

"New Zealand's sons at the front are eager to have the opportunity of fighting shoulder to shoulder with their Canadian brothers in arms against our common foe and in defence of our national honor. Our warmest sympathy goes out to the relatives of the brave men who have fallen.

(Signed) "MASSEY,
"Prime Minister."

PLEADED NOT GUILTY; TRIALS SET FOR JUNE

Los Angeles, Cal., April 29.—Baltazar Aviles, former governor of Lower California, indicted by a federal grand jury with Harry Chandler, of the Los Angeles Times, and others on the charge of having violated neutrality laws by conspiring to send an armed expedition into Mexican territory, pleaded not guilty yesterday in the United States district court. Francisco Ayon and Geronimo Sandoval, of San Diego, similarly indicted, also pleaded not guilty.

M. S. Gallaher, assistant United States district attorney, announced that Chandler, Walter Bowker, manager of a large ranch property in Lower California belonging to Chandler, General Harrison Gray Otis and General B. J. Viljoen had been given until May 17 to enter pleas. The trials will be held in June.

ALLIES HOLD GROUND GAINED IN BELGIUM

British and French Official Reports; Many Bombs Dropped by French Aviators

London, April 29.—The following British official statement was issued last night:

"Fighting to the north and northeast of Ypres continued all yesterday. Our operations, in conjunction with those of the French, definitely stopped the German attack, and it has not been renewed since.

"Since yesterday morning there have been no Germans west of the canal except at Steenstraate, where they have established a small bridge head.

"The readjustment of the situation has necessitated the delivery of counter-attacks both by the French and our troops on the north of the Ypres salient. In resisting these counter-attacks the Germans again made use of asphyxiating gases and of shells manufactured in contravention of The Hague convention.

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

Paris, April 29.—The following official statement was issued by the war office last night:

"The day has been relatively calm in Belgium, with no modification in the situation. We have retained the ground which we gained in the last three days.

"In Champagne the Germans took from us in the region of Beausejour 200 metres of advanced trenches. We have retaken half of them.

"In the Argonne, near Maria Theresa, an attack attempted by the Germans was checked immediately by our fire. At Les Eparges the enemy has bombarded, but delivered no further attacks.

"The same thing has occurred at Hartmann's Wellerkopf. The Germans have directed an intense fire against the summit, but made no attack today.

"During the course of the day of April 27 our aviators launched thirty-two shells on the station at Bollweiler (seven miles northwest of Muelhausen) and sixty shells on the station at Chambley, where they set fire to a depot of munitions.

"On April 28 one of our aeroplanes dropped six projectiles on the hangars of the dirigibles at Friedrichshafen. The aviator observed clouds of smoke rising from the roof of one hangar. Twenty-one shells have been dropped on the station, the bridges and a factory at Leopoldshohe (Baden). During this bombardment one of the aeroplanes fell within the German lines.

"During the course of the day four German machines were pursued and reached by our aviators. One fell ablaze within the lines of the enemy near Brimont. Two others came to the earth near our trenches—one in Champagne and the other in the region of Ancre—and were destroyed by our artillery.

"The fourth fell within our lines at Muizon, west of Rheims. The two German aviators, who were not wounded, were taken prisoners."

Paris, April 29.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Romanshorn, Switzerland, says:

"An aeroplane, flying at a great height, dropped six bombs on the Zeppelin establishment at Friedrichshafen. Despite a violent shrapnel and machine gun fire, it remained in the vicinity of the balloon works for half an hour, and then retired safely, after accomplishing its object. The extent of the damage done by the aeroplane is not known."

BRITISH AUTHORITY MADE INVESTIGATION

London, April 29.—The secretary of state for war has issued to the Canadian Associated Press a letter from Dr. John S. Haldane, F. R. S., an authority on respiration, air analysis, etc., who went to France to observe and study the effects of the gas used by the enemy, and to report the best means of resisting the attacks. The doctor devotes his report almost entirely to how the Canadians were affected.

"The symptoms, and facts so far ascertained," he says, "point to the use by the German troops of chlorine or bromide, for the purpose of asphyxiation. There are also facts pointing to the use in German shells of other irritant substances. Still, the last of these agents are not of the same brutality and barbarous character as was the gas used in the attack on the Canadians.

"The effects are not those of any of the ordinary products of combustion of explosives. On this point the symptoms described left not the slightest doubt in my mind."

ITALIAN RESERVISTS ORDERED TO RETURN

Buenos Ayres, April 29.—The Italian ministers to Argentina and Paraguay yesterday received instructions to order all Italian reservists absent without leave to return to Italy immediately. The steamship Atlantico, plying between South America and Italy, has been requisitioned by Italy to convey the reservists home. Most of the reservists in South America have not seen service for several years.

CAPT. BENSON MADE CHIEF OF OPERATIONS

Washington, April 29.—Secretary Daniels yesterday announced the appointment of Capt. William S. Benson to the newly-created post of chief of operations of the navy. Capt. Benson now is commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard.

POEM THAT CAUSED MEYER'S RESIGNATION

Two Harvard Professors Awarded Prize to Author of "Gott Mit Uns"

Cambridge, Mass., April 29.—President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, made public yesterday his reply to the letter addressed to him by Professor Kuno Meyer, of the university of Berlin, in which the latter protested against the publication by a Harvard student paper of a poem entitled "Gott Mit Uns." Dr. Lowell disclaims for the university authorities any responsibility for the verses, and says Harvard's policy of freedom of speech will be preserved. His letter follows:

"Cambridge, Mass., April 27.

"My Dear Professor Meyer,—

"Your letter has come and I am grieved at the feeling of irritation against Harvard that it shows. The poem and prize to which you refer I had never heard of until your letter came.

"As you are aware, the freedom of speech of neither the professors nor the students in an American university is limited, nor are they themselves subject in their utterances to the direction of the authorities. This policy of freedom of speech we shall continue to pursue, for we believe it to be the only one which accords with the principles of academic freedom. I hope the time will come when you and your colleagues in Germany will recognize that this course is the only right one.

"Very truly yours,
"A. LAWRENCE LOWELL."

The poem referred to was written in competition, and the author was given a prize. The judges were two professors of the university, Prof. Meyer, who was exchange professor at Harvard, announced in a letter to the New York Times that he had resigned because of this poem. The poem follows:

GOTT MIT UNS.

No doubt ye are the people. Wisdom's flame
Springs from your cannon—yes, from yours alone.
God needs your dripping lance to prop His throne.
No doubt ye are the people. Far from shame
Your captains who deface the sculptured stone,
Which by the labor and the blood and bone
Of pious millions calls upon His name.
No doubt ye are the folk. 'Tis to prove
Your wardenship of virtue and of lore
Ye sacrifice the truth, in seeking gore,
Upon your altar to the Prince of Love.
Yet still cry, ye who still in darkness plod—
'Tis anti-Christ ye serve and not your God.

DOCTORS FROM CANADA

Montreal, April 29.—"Col. Pelletier, agent-general for the Province of Quebec," says The Gazette's London correspondent, "approached the medical chief of the War Office recently with regard to the question of accepting Canadian doctors for service either in field or home hospitals. He has been informed that the Imperial Government will accept any medical men approved by the Dominion Government for this purpose."

ATTACKS REPULSED IN USZOK REGION

Russian Report Tells of Fresh Activities at North End of Eastern Line

Petrograd, April 29.—The following official communication was issued last night:

"Yesterday enemy elements displayed intense activity in the direction of Tilsit, Chavli and Jurberg, on the Upper Niemen river. To the west of the Niemen, on the Czoszuppe river, there were collisions which ended in our favor.

"Near Kalwarya and Ossowetz (Russian Poland), there was an artillery duel.

"To the north of the Narew river the Germans, on the morning of the 27th, attacked on both banks of the Orzyc river. With the bayonet we successfully repulsed an attack in the region of the village of Jedsorojetz.

"West of Mlawa we also repulsed attempts to advance by enemy advance guards.

"In the Carpathians, in the region of the Uszok pass, we repulsed on the 26th and during the following night attacks which the enemy delivered with great energy, and also against the heights to the northeast of the villages of Lubnia and Butla. The enemy suffered heavy losses on our wire entanglements.

"In the direction of Stry desperate engagements continue.

"In the region to the south of Koziowa the enemy, on the 26th, attempted an assault against our front of Koziowa-Golovotsky, but we repulsed him by successful counter-attacks with the bayonet.

Vienna, April 29.—The following official communication was issued yesterday at the war department:

"The general situation is unchanged. In the Carpathians and in Russian Poland heavy artillery fighting occurred at isolated points. Our artillery blew up two Russian ammunition stores. Repeated night attacks by the enemy in the district east of the height of Ostry were repulsed.

"In Southeastern Galicia and in Bukowina there were no important engagements."

RED CROSS BRANCH FORMED AT DUNCAN

Forty Attended Organization Meeting: Committee Appointed to Make Necessary Arrangements.

Duncan, April 29.—About 40 ladies and gentlemen attended a meeting at the Quamichan hotel, Duncan, on Tuesday afternoon to discuss the formation of a branch of the Canadian Red Cross society in North Cowichan. Major Mutter, of Somenos, was chairman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Bullen, of the Victoria branch, and Mrs. and Miss Tooker, of the South Cowichan branch, were present.

Mr. Sutherland expressed appreciation of the work done by the I. O. D. E. and by the Women's institutes. The Red Cross headquarters requested that in different sections of the country parent societies of as large size as possible should be formed. The Victoria and District branch had been trying to do this.

In answer to questions it was explained that the work of the Patriotic committee was entirely different from that of the Red Cross, and Mrs. Bullen explained exactly what became of the socks and other garments that every one was making and how economy was practiced in the buying and most careful cutting out of the materials before work was sent out to be made up.

Mr. Sutherland spoke of the work of the Red Cross. At the front were three zones of activity—the collecting zone in the actual area of conflict, staffed by surgeons and the Royal Army Medical Corps; the evacuating zone, occupied by ambulance trains and field hospitals, where the nurses got nearest to the firing line; and the distributing zone, including the stationery hospitals, general hospitals, hospital ships, convalescent homes in England, and military hospitals outside the theatre of war. It was in this last that the British and Canadian Red Cross societies were finding their principal field of activity. Money and equipment, for these could not be collected quickly enough.

It was decided on the motion of Mr. Hadwen, seconded by Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley, to form a North Cowichan committee for the organization of Red Cross work in connection with the Victoria and District branch.

A committee composed of the following was appointed to make all arrangements: H. C. Clogstoun, C. I. E., convenor; the Rev. F. L. Stephenson, Major Mutter, Lady Phillipps-Wolley, and Mrs. Thomas Pitt.

Those present enrolled themselves as members and were guests of the manager of the Quamichan hotel at tea.

VICTORIA CROSS FOR BRAVE NAVAL OFFICER

London, April 29.—The king has granted the Victoria Cross to Commander Henry Peel Ritchie, Royal Navy, for the following "conspicuous act of bravery:"

"On November 28, when in command of the searching and demolition operations of Dar-es-Salaam, East Africa, though severely wounded several times, his fortitude and resolution enabled him to continue to do his duty, inspiring all by his example, until at his eighth wound he became unconscious. The interval between his first and last severe wound was 25 minutes."

GARLAND STATES HE HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Believed That Carleton Conservatives Will Not Re-nominate Present Member

Ottawa, April 29.—The Evening Citizen says:

"'Are you going to emulate the example of Mr. De Witt Foster, M. P. for King's, N. S., and resign your seat as member for Carleton?' a reporter asked W. F. Garland yesterday.

"'I am saying nothing,' replied Mr. Garland. Other questions were evaded with the same answer.

"Mr. Garland told the executive of the Carleton Conservative association at the meeting in Stittsville on Tuesday that he would not resign, but the announcement that Mr. Foster had resigned his seat was not made public until Tuesday night. It is believed by some of the prominent Conservatives of Carleton that Mr. Foster's action may induce Mr. Garland to take the same action, and, like Mr. Foster, issue a statement to the electors and go before the convention for nomination again.

"Both members were the subjects of Sir Robert Borden's expressions of disapproval in the house on the last day of the session.

"If the Carleton county Conservative executive persists in putting it up to the prime minister as to whether or not Mr. Garland is to be endorsed as the Conservative candidate in the next election there is little doubt as to what will be the answer.

"It is pretty well believed that the retirement of Mr. Foster was due to Sir Robert Borden's attitude, and there is no likelihood whatever that the prime minister would distinguish between the member for King's and the member for Carleton. If Mr. Garland persists in seeking nomination and succeeds in landing it, the prediction is safe that it will not be with the approval of the government. The opinion on the Hill, especially in the light of the Foster case, is that Mr. Garland will not be re-nominated."

THE M'GREGOR.

A young soldier writing to his mother from the scene of strife in Northern France comforted her with the noble assurance that it is not length of days that matters; the vital thing is accomplishments. A few months ago Captain J. Herrick McGregor was engaged in peaceful pursuits in British Columbia. He generally was regarded by his friends, whose name was legion, as more poet than warrior. But blood will tell, and when the war drums sounded throughout the Empire he was one of the first to volunteer for active service. Last night the sad news was received in Victoria that in the list of those who had died fighting valiantly against tyranny and oppression, for freedom and justice to ravished Belgium, for human liberty, and for the fame and glory of British arms, was the name of Captain J. H. McGregor. The first announcement was that Captain McGregor was wounded, and upon that statement we ventured to hope that Victorians would have the supreme privilege of welcoming their gallant soldier home marching at the head of a regiment. That was not to be. Instead we are called upon to mourn the death while in the discharge of his patriotic duty of a brave Canadian and to express to the best of our feeble ability our deepest sympathy for those who share his honored name. Captain McGregor was one of the leaders in the Canadian forces which covered themselves with glory in one of the fiercest and most sanguinary conflicts in history, and we have not the slightest doubt played a prominent part in turning the tide of victory in favor of the allies and checking the Germans in what will prove to be their last desperate effort to break the barrier which stands between them and Calais.

OUR BONDS IN THE STATES.

Predicting that at least fifty per cent. of Canadian municipal bonds will be sold in the United States during the current year, the Monetary Times advises the various city authorities to study the conditions and wishes of that market, now the only one available for funds. It points out that a few indiscreet steps on the part of half a dozen municipalities might easily damage all municipal loan prospects on the other side of the boundary.

The United States investor regards unfavorably cities showing inflated valuations and excessive debts. A prominent bond expert of New York not long ago wrote that whenever an American investor was offered an issue of Canadian bonds about the first criticism he made was of the financial statement. He generally found the net debt too large in proportion to the assessed valuation. He added that it generally was considered in the United States that an assessment of $1000 per capita was about as high as it was safe to figure on.

The Monetary Times says that proper economy and business-like management of Canadian municipalities will help a great deal to make their bonds popular with United States investors. This also is true in regard to government securities. The only way in which a province, municipality or private corporation can maintain an unimpaired credit in the large financial centres is to show that it is capable of spending wisely the money it borrows. Sound business methods create confidence in the most critical market. Some of the American states learned that lesson with especial force not many years ago. They found that extravagance and carelessness had closed the money markets to them. They could not obtain any assistance from Washington, which does not subsidize states, and they were compelled to return to the elementary principles of sane business, with the result that finally their credit and standing were fully restored.

It is one of the delusions of apostles of brass-band business methods that investors abroad are easily fooled; that they are a lot of harmless individuals of limited intelligence who are at once impressed with flamboyant chatter and grandiose newspaper articles. There are, of course, guileless lambs among the rich as among the poor, but the heads of the big investment and bond houses of the large centres are the shrewdest men in the world, who have the means of learning more about the circumstances, methods and prospects of the province, city or corporation seeking a loan than is known to most of the people connected with them. Canada's resources and possibilities are such that only the application of common sense to their exploitation is necessary to open the door to a very large amount of American capital in search of opportunities for investment.

NAVAL LOSSES.

The other day we estimated the tonnage of Germany's naval losses, including the Goeben and Breslau, at 172,000 against 143,000 lost by Great Britain. The British loss in fighting ships numbers twenty, including four battleships of the pre-dreadnought type, ten cruisers of various classes, two gunboats and four submarines. The Germans have lost forty-one vessels, including the Goeben and Breslau, comprising twenty-three cruisers, four gunboats, nine destroyers and five submarines. The submarine losses are probably much greater, for the five referred to do not include any not officially admitted by the Germans themselves.

Since the commencement of the war Great Britain has increased her navy by units which are immeasurably more formidable than the ships she has lost. The Queen Elizabeth alone could account for Craddock's entire squadron with several thrown in. There are five Queen Elizabeths and probably all of the Royal Sovereign class are in commission. Thus the British navy today probably is at least half again as strong as it was when the war began. Between them Russia and France have added ten capital ships to their navies in the last nine months. There is not a single German ship of any kind at large on the high seas. Certainly the naval situation is eminently satisfactory, and as long as it remains so Germany's chances of winning the war are absolutely nil. Sea power is strangling her.

CONSTANTINOPLE BULLETINS.

Constantinople official bulletins on the fighting at the Dardanelles are strongly reminiscent of the "victory-after-victory" announcements from Vienna which prefaced the Russian conquest of Galicia and the annihilation of fifty per cent. of the first-line of the Austrian army last August. There is one noticeable difference, however. The Austrian bulletins were issued to the world with joyous celerity. Constantinople's reports of glorious victories are modestly withheld for two days. Thus the bulletin which announces the utter defeat of the British and French, "thousands" of whom were driven into the sea while the remainder "hoisted the white flag," bears the date of April 27. Just why the dear brother of Wilhelm should keep such a good thing under his fez for forty-eight hours must be puzzling the populace of Berlin and Vienna. It does not puzzle the allies, for they know that the feeling of resentment against Germany that is becoming more widespread in the Turkish capital every day makes careful editing of war bulletins on the part of Enver and his fellow conspirators very necessary. An admission of defeat means an uprising, and at least the attempted assassination of Enver, Uncle von Der Goltz and von Sanders. They will lie until it is time to run, which means until the allied fleet forces its way into the Sea of Marmora.

The British war office and admiralty last night announced that the allied forces had established themselves across the Gallipoli peninsula and were "advancing steadily." Yesterday the French occupied Kum Kale, near the ruins of ancient Troy, where mayhap the shades of the valiant Hector, lightning defying Ajax and their immortal hosts, are gazing down in wonderment upon this sensational exhibition of twentieth century warfare. An Athens dispatch reports a British success on the shores of the Bay of Suvla, on the northwestern point of Gallipoli peninsula. This means an advance by the left wing of ten miles. To meet the extended line of the British forces across the peninsula the Turks also must extend their front or they will be outflanked, and as that extension must carry their line to the seashore it can be enfiladed by the navy. Another division of the fleet has entered the Dardanelles, so the Turks on the Gallipoli peninsula are confronted with an attack on both flanks and in the centre, a condition which Professor von der Goltz must admit is very uncomfortable to say the least.

The Germans remain on the defensive in Flanders and eastern France, and it is believed that the allies still are trying to regain the ground lost by them. They have not been able to dislodge the Germans from the bridgehead at Steenstraate, west of the Ypres canal, but this will be done in good time. Berlin, which has become fearful lest it be outclassed by its affectionate sister, Constantinople, as a public sentiment moulder, now estimates the number of guns captured by the Germans at sixty-three. By Sunday the number will have been increased to seventy-five.

On the eastern front the Germans are attempting a diversion by feints north of Przasnysz, and south of Kalwarja, where, according to Berlin, the Germans have made an advance. As the last Berlin report spoke of a German progress southeast of Kalwarja, the latest advance must have been backward. The Berlin bulletin editors probably know the German people best and therefore treat them as incapable of exercising the ordinary processes of reason. No change is reported from the Carpathian front.

CLEAN UP!

The clean-up campaign about to be promoted by the Victoria Manufacturers' Association is an excellent idea which should receive the hearty co-operation of our citizens. It is something in which every householder can do his "bit" and, besides, should afford opportunities for work for a number of the unemployed.

Although Victoria is one of the cleanest cities on the continent, it can be made noticeably cleaner. During the summer it will be entertaining a large number of travelers en route to the exposition and returning from it, and it should be our aim to impress them favorably in every respect.

WHY?

A fortnight or so before the end of the parliamentary session Sir Robert Borden, in reply to Hon. George P. Graham, admitted that he had been in receipt of considerable correspondence from the Manufacturers' Association regarding the purchase of war supplies by the government. Asked to produce it, he said with a degree of heat wholly unwarranted by so simple a request that it was confidential, but it would be laid before the House if the Manufacturers' Association had no objection.

The correspondence was not produced, but it is believed that in it the association protested against the employment of middlemen, citing transactions, with names, dates and places, to support their protest. Why did not Sir Robert produce the correspondence? He had the permission of the executive of the Manufacturers' Association to lay it before the House, according to the public statement of that body. Is it not true that the correspondence was suppressed because the Canadian Manufacturers' Association strongly condemned the system under which the awarding of contracts for war supplies was made?

When two Germans meet on the street the form of salutation is "Gott Straafe England," which means "God Punish England." The school teacher begins her days work with that cheerful exhortation, in which all the pupils join. We understand it is being taught to parrots and kultur does not despair of teaching it to the few roosters, cats and dogs that have escaped the government commissariat. London Punch hits off this inexpressibly silly demonstration of puerility in a cartoon which shows the composer of the Hymn of Hate gaining inspiration for his composition by listening to a quarrel between two cats on a back-yard fence.

+ + +

May we inquire of our contemporary if it has heard anything of the whereabouts of Sir Richard McBride lately? We may explain that Sir Richard, who is the Premier of the province, boarded a trans-Atlantic steamer at New York so hurriedly that the bond company with which he was negotiating for the disposal of Pacific Great Eastern securities was profoundly mystified. The bond company, of course, did not know that the Public Accounts Committee at Ottawa was anxious to hear Sir Richard's evidence on the submarine purchase.

+ + +

Herman Ridder, the GERMAN-American editor, says the adoption of the English language by the Americans was a calamity. He evidently thinks Uncle Sam should have accepted German as the official tongue of the union. Imagine a baseball game with German as the language used on the field and in the bleachers! Why, a player could make the entire circuit of bases while his coach was trying to tell him to slide to second. German and baseball? Gosh!

+ + +

Answer to question from correspondent: The biggest guns afloat as far as officially disclosed are the 15-inch pieces carried by vessels of the Queen Elizabeth and Royal Sovereign classes. Sixteen-inch guns have been shipped to Great Britain from the United States and no doubt are being made there also, but they probably are for coast defence and for use on the continent when the allies find them necessary.

+ + +

Captain Herrick McGregor was a clever man with the pen before he laid it down and buckled on the sword. If he had devoted his talents exclusively to literary pursuits he might have gone far, but as it is his name probably will be longer and more dearly cherished by posterity.

+ + +

That noble ally of kultur the Turk is accomplishing prodigies, according to the official bulletins from Constantinople. But he has been doing that from the beginning of the war against both Britain and Russia, and still the tide of soldiery surges closer and closer to the seat of Islam.

+ + +

We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Leiser our sincere sympathy in the death of their daughter, Mrs. Oppenheimer. We understand that Mrs. Oppenheimer never fully recovered from the shock of the tragic death of her husband.

+ + +

Was ever a country so "torn between two opinions" as Italy is at present? One of these days something will happen in the neighborhood of the Dardanelles which will make the decision of the Italian government a matter of indifference.

+ + +

A correspondent at the front says that according to all rules of the game the Canadians were beaten, but they did not know it. They simply refused to "take the count," and eventually saved the day for the allies. Chips of the Old Block, eh?

Canada is first of the dominions in the battles of the Empire. Probably the Australians are undergoing their baptism of fire in the neighborhood of the Dardanelles. We shall hear something of their doings in a few days.

Owing to the great length of the bridge, the incendiary evidently chose his location well, for there are no hydrants on the structure and the water with which to fight the flames had to be pumped from the hydrants at either end. One engine, however, was run down to the water's edge and sea water was pumped through a line of hose.

The fire alarm was turned in at 4:29 and two hours later the great steel girders of one of the ninety foot sections, warped and twisted by the heat, gave way and fell into the water, taking two men with them. C. W. Colvin, a B. C. Electric railway lineman on the emergency car, was at work trying to cut off the electric power on the heavily charged trolley lines, and he and a fireman went down. Colvin was badly cut about the head and body in the fall.

Both men would have been drowned had it not been for the prompt arrival of the Pacific Dredging Company's launch, in charge of Captain H. Chinnery and Engineer W. O. Smith. The launch was rushed beneath the burning bridge, from which lighted brands and hot rivets were dropping, and the two men were brought to shore, the police ambulance conveying Colvin to the hospital. The fireman refused to go to the hospital, but insisted on going back on the bridge to warn the chief of the danger of another section giving way.

Just when the fire on Connaught bridge was burning at its height a call was received at 6.35 from Granville street bridge, where smoke and flames were discovered to be issuing from beneath the board walk near the span.

Chief Thompson, several chemical wagons and the fire dispatch car which had been busily engaged in bringing the owners of warehouses and factories adjacent to the fire to the scene of the blaze on Connaught bridge, rushed to the second call. The fire this time, luckily, had been started on the lee side of the bridge, right near the north side of the span, and after the boards had cut away men were lowered on hook ladders and the blaze was extinguished.

Evidently the fire had smoldered for some little time before breaking into flames, protected as it was by the big steel girders from the wind. It would have been a dangerous thing for the incendiary to have done his work on the other side of Granville street bridge, for a policeman is on constant patrol from Davie street to the waterfront on that side, and he would have been detected, but there was no way in which the policeman could have seen him at work on the east side.

Connaught bridge cost $800,000. The damage probably will be between $200,000 and $300,000.

"In my opinion there is no question that the two bridge fires this morning were of incendiary origin," said Assistant Fire Chief Thompson at 10 o'clock this morning after moking an investigation at both bridges. Who set the fires is purely a matter of conjecture.

Chief of Police McLennan declined to express an apinion as to whether or not the fires had been started by alien enemies of Canada.

SHAKESPEARE CLASS

Annual Meeting Held Last Night at Esquimalt Methodist Church; Gratifying Reports.

The annual meeting of the Shakespeare Adult Bible Class was held last night at Esquimalt Methodist church, the event bringing to a close a very successful and gratifying year's work. Reports of the various activities of the class were read, demonstrating that one of the very beneficial results of the year's work was to be found in the educational series which had been held. These gatherings had been well attended by the young people and others in the church, as well as by the residents in the district generally. The treasurer's statement was also gratifying, showing a substantial balance in hand after the payment of all debts.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

William Smallwood, president; E. S. Bailey, vice-president; F. R. Wright, teacher; Archie Miller, assistant teacher; Mrs. White, secretary; James Hodge, treasurer; John Blackadder, librarian; and Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Bailey and J. T. Hodge, conveners of committees.

At the conclusion of the business part of the proceedings a social hour was indulged in during which a purse of gold was presented by the pastor, on behalf of the class, to J. J. Elliott and his sister, Miss Elliott, who are leaving in the near future for their home in England. Both the class members have been intimately associated with the life of the church almost since its inception, and the presentation was made as a token of appreciation and affection. Mrs. Smallwood presented a bouquet of flowers to Miss Elliott on behalf of the class, and the proceedings concluded with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

FAILED TO REPORT.

Dr. Garesche Has to Explain Why Police Were Not Notified of Motor Accident.

Dr. A. J. Garesche was this morning summonsed to the police court on a charge of having failed to report to the chief of police within six hours an accident which took place at the corner of Vancouver and Burdette streets on the evening of April 21.

Dr. Garesche said his car had barely touched the motor cycle of the other driver and knocked a little paint off it. Under the circumstances he did not think the affair was an accident in the sense of having to report it.

As the allegation of the motorcycle owner is that his machine was damaged the evidence will have to be heard, and to-morrow morning was the time fixed.

ABOUT FLOUR

With the present increased cost of living it is really a serious question. If you can get a few more loaves each bake day would you not be prepared to at least try the flour which guarantees this result? Royal Standard Flour. That's the flour we are talking about, and it has this guarantee. More loaves on bake day than any other flour will produce. Better loaves, too. Stronger and more nutritious. And, in addition to all its good qualities it is made in British Columbia. Its sale supports a lot of British Columbia workmen and their families. So why not order a sack next time. And if you don't like it, if it does not suit you, your grocer, who will cheerfully sell it to you, will just as cheerfully refund you the full purchase price.

Indians Sign Pledge.—The recent murder and suicide on the Indian reserve at Bella Coola has caused a wave of temperance sentiment among the natives. A couple of Sundays ago, in the mission church, following up an individual urging of all the members of the band to sign the pledge on the part of Rev. Mr. Gibson, there was a public taking of the obligation to abstain from liquor. There had been some opposition from the older men during the week, but they followed the young men and women, who signed willingly, and put their signatures to the document. Eighty-six adults and twenty-nine children signed it, and it is hoped that this public expression will go far towards breaking up a habit which is the worst foe of the natives.

Visited Superintendent.—A committee of the city council this morning waited on Superintendent Van Sant, of the Victoria & Sidney Railway, to learn whether the company would be willing to abandon the track on Blanshard street south of Fisgard street, so that the street can be paved. Mr. Van Sant stood out for an alternative track near Pembroke street for switching operations, but the aldermen were unwilling to promise anything more than an alternative route terminating at Discovery street. Neither side being satisfied, the matter will come up again at the streets committee to-morrow, when the subject will receive attention.

Send Soldiers' Comforts. — Up to date Mrs. Bullen's committee of the I. O. D. E. in charge of soldiers' comforts has sent 496 pairs of socks, 144 pairs of wristlets, and 12 knitted helmets to Miss Plummer to be distributed among the soldiers and aviators in France. All knitters are asked to send in completed socks, etc., at once, as another box is to be sent to Miss Plummer at the end of the present week. Great assistance would be given the committee if those who are knitting socks would fasten each pair of socks together before bringing them in. In a box from the Women's Canadian club, very gratefully received at headquarters, Temple building recently, there was a much-appreciated contribution from Mrs. Lane and other ladies in Portland, Oregon.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, April 29, 1890.

J. B. Goss, of Minneapolis, identified with the Victoria Lumbering and Manufacturing Co., spent Sunday and yesterday in town, and left to-day for San Francisco.

The government steamer Douglas leaves to-morrow morning for Comox, to look after some business connected with the lighthouse construction at that place.

On the first of May, Mr. C. S. Finlaison, of H. M. customs at this port, will complete 30 years' continuous service in that department, and in accordance with his own request will retire on a superannuation allowance.

The wedding ceremony of Mr. Gavin H. Burns, manager of the Bank of British North America, and Miss Macdonald, daughter of Senator Macdonald, will be celebrated in the Reformed Episcopal church to-morrow afternoon.

NANAIMO HERALD SOLD.

The Nanaimo Herald, the Conservative newspaper of the Coal City, has been sold by J. S. H. Matson, of Victoria, to a syndicate headed by Robert Hindmarsh, of Nanaimo. Mr. Matson bought the property from George Mowat about three years and six months ago.

Mr. Hindmarsh has been for some time editor of the Herald and was formerly engaged in newspaper work with the Free Press of Nanaimo, later going into the real estate business in Victoria. The price given for the property is not stated.

FINE RESIDENCE GUTTED

Home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Woodward Burnt While Firemen Are Helpless for lack of Water.

But for the absence of a stream of water from the city main on Quadra street, one of the fine residences in the vicinity of Victoria could have been saved yesterday afternoon, when an outbreak gutted the beautiful residence of A. J. Woodward, North Quadra street.

Mrs. Woodward and friends were in the garden when the fire occurred in the attic, and as the Dunedin street hall firemen were engaged at another fire, Chief Davis went out himself with headquarters men. The only means at hand were chemicals as there was no water supply, and after 150 gallons of chemicals had been used the fire burnt itself out. The chief is confident that if he had had only a single stream of water, the lower portion of the building could have been saved. Most of the furniture was removed from the building during the progress of the fire. The cost of the dwelling and garage destroyed, which is covered by insurance, is about $12,000. This is the second serious residence fire in Saanich this week, but in this case the circumstances are particularly unfortunate, owing to the proximity of a main which could not be used in the absence of hydrants.

MANY MURDER TRIALS

Four to Be Heard at Clinton Assizes and Three at Kamloops Next Month

Stuart Henderson has left for Ashcroft on his way to attend the Clinton assizes. There are four murder cases down for trial this term, but one will have to be traversed to the next assizes owing to the absence of Constable Matthews, who is in hospital with a broken leg, sustained when he leaped from a train near Squamish after an escaping prisoner. This is the case of Albert L. Clinger, accused of killing his partner, Berton Smith on the Cariboo road. An unusual feature of the case is that Clinger had laid a charge of theft against Smith after the time at which he is alleged to have murdered and hid the body.

Charles Perrault is charged with the murder of an Indian woman in a tent at Hat Creek ranch on October 22. Fritz H. Van Duinen is charged with the murder of his partner, Job Vermeulen, on their ranch near Fort George. The evidence is largely circumstantial. Julia Aleck, a young Indian woman, is charged with having caused the death of her new-born baby, her defence being that she fell from a horse and that its death was accidental. There are two cases of alleged cattle-killing laid against ranchers by neighbors.

At the Kamloops assizes, which open before Chief Justice Hunter on May 10, two Douglas Lake Indians will be charged with the murder of another Indian at Quilchina, Charles Roy will be tried for the alleged murder of his partner in a tent on the reserve at Schiedam Creek, and T. Bruno and Owen Sue will be accused of attempted murder.

QUICK RESULTS ASTONISH VICTORIA

There is astonishment in Victoria at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple mixture drains such great amounts of foul matter from the body that A SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. The speedy action of Adler-i-ka is surprising. Hall & Co., 702 Yates street.

Held Confirmation.—Last evening the Rt. Rev. Bishop Roper conducted a confirmation class of twenty-two candidates at St. John's church, a large congregation being present on the occasion of his lordship's last visit to St. John's. Bishop Roper spoke impressively to the candidates on the text: "Strengthened by the Glorious Power of Jesus Christ." In the course of his address he pointed out that these were heroic times, when special grace and special strength were needed in the Christian life. Referring to the brave sacrifice of life made by the soldiers, he appealed to Christians to have the same loyalty to their profession of faith. The candidates were prepared for confirmation by Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, rector of St. John's.

Sale of Property By Tender

Rocky Point, Near to Pedder Bay

Tenders are invited for the purchase of Lot two (2), Block three (3), part of subdivision of the northwest half of Section fifty-seven (57), Metchosin District, Map number 1502. Offers will be received by the undersigned, Solicitor for the vendor, for the whole of this property, consisting of six and one-half acres (6½ acres) more or less, having a magnificent outlook over Pedder Bay and the Straits, a property very desirable for either summer or winter residence. The upper part of this property is cleared and mostly cultivable, and there is a well finished 3-room cottage thereon. The lower portion of the property is nicely timbered waterfrontage, and contains a fully modern, 5-room bungalow, with bathroom and toilet and roomy basement. Water is installed throughout the house, and there are 2 deep wells and 2 good force pumps on this portion of the estate; also a motor shed and a good poultry house and some young fruit trees. There is a good landing place for boats, and a government wharf near the property. A good motor road runs the whole length of the property, which is about one hour's distance from Victoria by motor-car and about 1 hour and 15 minutes by boat. The property is fenced with wire fence, and there is a fine supply of timber for firewood and good opportunities for salmon fishing and shooting. A first mortgage for $500.00 can be assumed by the purchaser at 8 per cent. running for a period expiring on January 22, 1918, if desired, or can be paid off at 3 months' notice.

TENDERS WILL BE RECEIVED SEPARATELY for the above mentioned upper part of the property with the 3 roomed cottage, which part consists of two and one-sixth acres, more or less. AND ALSO SEPARATELY for the lower portion of the property, consisting of four and two-sixths acres with the above mentioned 5 roomed, modern bungalow, appurtenances and small garden.

Tenders will be received up to and including the 19th day of May, 1915, for the whole of the said estate, or for the upper portion, or the lower portion thereof. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders to be sent to:

Robert Cruise, M. P., Advises Citizens to Show Patriotic Spirit in Politics

"The crop prospects on the prairies are excellent," said Robert Cruise, M. P., for Dauphin, who is on a business visit to the coast, and who has been prominently identified with the Manitoba Grain Growers association. "The season is a month earlier, and prospects both of an increase in acreage and in the amount produced per acre are good. The prairie provinces will certainly recover more promptly than the coast districts from the present curtailment of activity, because the people are primary producers, and while the cities of British Columbia, more particularly Victoria, are much more desirable for residence, you will see a return of many to the prairies to share in the revival of opportunity, though eventually the coast cities will gain on their return to find homes when they have made a competence.

"The late session at Ottawa has been one of war and of graft, and in the latter connection fairminded men will ask why Sir Robert Borden should have promised an independent commission if there had not been graft as the Conservatives deny? The only natural inference is that the prime minister had to take the matter out of the hands of the ministers.

"The impression is that the general election will be forced this summer, by the element in the cabinet supporting Hon. Robert Rogers, but the most patriotic attitude for the Dominion of Canada and for the empire is the postponement of an election at this time, when our men are being mown down at the front. What prospect is there of taking a satisfactory vote of men under conditions which prevailed at the present battle at Ypres? The citizens of Victoria, irrespective of party, should get together and hold a demonstration, as is being done in Ontario, protesting against an election at this time. If Sir Robert Borden receives resolutions from all over Canada objecting to a dissolution while the empire is at war, the element seeking to force an appeal, in which they seek to take advantage of flag waving, will be compelled to surrender. Can anyone explain what the necessity is to hold an election at this time, unless it is to secure a party advantage? There is no necessity for a dissolution for months yet under the Constitution act."

Asked how the prairie provinces would go in case of a dissolution this year, Mr. Cruise would not prophesy, except to state that the result in Manitoba will depend largely on the result of the royal commission of investigation into the alleged graft in the construction of the new parliament buildings at Winnipeg.

Mr. Cruise, who shows his confidence in Victoria as a property owner here, is registered at the Dominion hotel.

DOES YOUR STOMACH CONTAIN A GLASSFUL OF ACID?

90 OUT OF 100 DYSPEPTICS HAVE DANGEROUS ACID IN THEIR STOMACHS, WHICH MUST BE NEUTRALIZED IF GOOD HEALTH IS TO BE MAINTAINED.

If you held a teaspoonful of hydrochloric acid in your mouth for only a second you would not be surprised at its burning and inflaming all the tissues; yet an eminent specialist states that 90 out of 100 dyspeptics go about with an excessive amount of this powerful acid in their stomachs, and then wonder what causes the burning and aching and why they suffer the discomfort after meals. To put wholesome food into an acid stomach only increases the discomfort, because the acid mixes with the fresh food and turns it sour, making a lot more acid. The acid condition causes food fermentation, which irritates, distends and inflames the tender stomach lining, and it is not surprising that specialists say acid stomachs are dangerous. This decidedly dangerous and uncomfortable condition can be overcome either by following a strict diet or, and this is far easier and more quickly effective, by taking a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a quarter glassful of water after meals to neutralize the acidity. The latter course is much more satisfactory because it corrects the acidity and banishes discomfort without any need for diet.

Vigilance the Price of a Good Complexion

To retain the natural beauty of the skin only proper care and treatment is needed. Our skins are naturally clear and healthy, but the demands of everyday life and unnatural living quickly spoil their freshness and beauty. So necessary is this care that no woman can afford to neglect it. The Nyal people have just issued a new booklet, "Your Complexion," which contains most useful and interesting information on how to care for the complexion in such a way that its beauty and freshness will be preserved for many years. It also includes directions for best methods of massage. The constant use of some good preparation, such as Nyal's Face Cream, is absolutely necessary to keep the skin really clean and healthy. It is a nourishing, oxygenated, greaseless skin-food which leaves no shine. Get a 25c or 50c jar and rub it gently into the skin. See how quickly it is absorbed, leaving the skin pleasantly refreshed and delicately fragrant. 120

NATIVE DAUGHTER HEARS LAST CALL

Mrs. Sol. Oppenheimer Died in San Francisco on Tuesday

Almost on the very eve of her departure for Victoria, Mrs. Sol. Oppenheimer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Leiser, of this city, who has been visiting for some time in the south, was seized with a fatal illness to which she succumbed on Tuesday, Miss Leiser, her sister, left for San Francisco immediately on receipt of the sad news, and will accompany the remains to this city, where the funeral will take place at a date to be announced later.

The late Mrs. Oppenheimer had a wide circle of friends in Victoria, having been born here and having spent the greater part of her girlhood in the city. As Miss Flossie Leiser she was active in many of the benevolent and other organizations of the city, for several years being president of the Daughters of Pity. Charming and accomplished, she was also well-known in various social activities, and for some time held the office of secretary of l'Alliance Francaise. She was efficient in whatever interest she took up, and was much valued by her co-workers in various charitable and other organizations to which she belonged.

Seven years ago she married Sol. Oppenheimer, of Vancouver, until the time of his death, following a motor accident two years ago, the family home being on Bidwell avenue. She had frequently visited her parents in Victoria in the intervening years, her two small children, Ruth and David, accompanying her almost wherever she went. These both survive her, the former aged six, the latter three. Mrs. Oppenheimer had not been strong for some time, and went to California for a change. She was expecting to come north at the end of the present week, but succumbed to a sudden attack of peritonitis.

Besides her two children and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Leiser, the deceased lady is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Hamburger and Miss Amy Leiser, of Victoria; and Mrs. Guttman, of Seattle; as well as other relatives.

AT THE THEATRES

"MOTORING" NEXT WEEK.

One of the funniest vaudeville acts in the world will be seen at Pantages theatre all next week, when Harry Tate's famous company will put on "Motoring," the most side-splitting sketch in the great comedian's repertoire. The management of Pantages is making special arrangements to accommodate the crowds next week, as the bill will be the finest ever put on at the local vaudeville theatre.

ROMANO THEATRE.

Charles Chaplin, universally known as the funniest man in the movies, will appear at Romano theatre to-night and to-morrow in his latest comedy success, "The Champion," which has just closed a three days record engagement at the Variety. This production will be in addition to the regular programme which includes G. W. Anderson in the three act Essanay drama of western life, "The Telltale Hand," and three side-splitting comedies entitled "Cupid's Column," "A Spiritual Elopement" and "A Box of Chocolates." These features will make by far the best programme yet presented in this popular playhouse.

ALLEN PLAYERS.

In writing of "The Blindness of Virtue," the play to be put on by the Allen Players at the Princess theatre, a wrong impression could easily be given of its tone and purpose. "The Blindness of Virtue" is a comedy drama with the scene laid in a charming English vicarage. It presents its characters with a calm assurance that robs it of any suggestion of offence. It is a picture of a home that one might locate on almost any street, and it deals with just those problems, which this same home may have to face. The characters of the play are real and human and one cannot help admiring the author (Cosmo Hamilton) for his masterly treatment of a delicate subject.

Miss Verna Felton will appear in the role of "Effie Pemberton," the young girl whose sheltered life is shown to have its disadvantage. This character, giving for the first time a true drawing of the dawn of womanhood, is one of the most sweetly appealing ever brought forth in a play. Mrs. P. R. Allen will be "Cookie" the servant of the vicarage, a part teeming with wisdom and humor. The advance sale is now on.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

Few comedians have gained such popularity in so short a time as has the elongated Barker this week at Pantages theatre. His parody on "Tipperary" has been encored numberless times, and he, with his clever partner has been the success of the week. "In the Garden of the Rajah" has also proved to be extremely popular. It is a bright little musical comedy, full of good music and amusing situations.

DOMINION THEATRE.

A strong list of attractive pictures has been secured for the week-end show at the Dominion. The four-part feature entitled "In Quest of the Sacred Gem," is replete with thrills. The quest of the stolen gem extends from India to New York and there is enough excitement and action to please the most exacting. In fact in this respect it rivals the famous "Million Dollar Mystery, and the solution of a great jewel problem. The police dog, "Series 3," a clever cartoon comedy by S. T. Bray, is another laughable and entertaining comedy by that famous artist. This and other interesting pictures complete a first rate programme. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the following week an extraordinary attraction of unusual interest and merit has been secured in Miss Annetta Kellerman, the diving Venus in the stupendous seven-part production, "King Neptune's Daughter."

VARIETY THEATRE.

Marguerite Clark, the dainty and magnetic little star, who sprang into instant and national popularity as a screen favorite through her two previous Famous Players' productions, "Wildflower" and "The Crucible," returns to the screen at the Variety theatre in the Famous Players Film company's four-part picturization of Grace Livingston Furniss' celebrated romantic comedy, "Gretna Green," in which she far surpasses all her former successes. This latest appearance of the diminutive and charming star on the Paramount programme is certain to establish her as one of the foremost screen artistes of the world.

The play possesses all the essential elements valuable to the successful screen drama—love, sacrifice, humor, mystery and thrill—and is of the picturesque period of the early nineteenth century, when romantic elopements to Gretna Green, a lovers' haven in the North of Scotland, added a dash of excitement to many true love-matches, when hearts reigned over the marts of commerce, just before the prose of business usurped the poetry of romance in old England.

CALLAHAN WILL JOIN SPOKANE
INDIANS NOW HAVE TEN PITCHERS

Gene Walsh Sent Home for Treatment to Stop Blood-poisoning; Seattle Beat Vancouver

Manager Wicker, of the Spokane club, expects that Pat Callahan, the Portland Coast leaguer, will join the Indians the end of this week. Callahan did not show quite enough stuff to stick with the Coasters, so he was shifted to Spokane. The latter club now has ten twirlers on its list, but Wicker will probably let five of his slab artists go before the cutting down time arrives.

Shortstop Gene Walsh, the St. Louis boy who tried out with the Indians, has been sent back to Spokane because of an injured foot. Walsh was spiked last week, and the wound has failed to heal properly. To prevent blood poisoning it was decided to send him home for treatment. Walsh will probably be cut loose as he has little change to beat Murphy out of the job, on the form that the former Philadelphia National leaguer has shown with the Indians this week.

Hunky Shaw may not have had any spring training, but he has his eye on the ball, if his passes to first are any criterion. Shaw is a useful batter because of his good judgment on balls, also his speed, which enables him to get down to first a majority of times. His fielding is also above reproach.

It takes a good healthy wallop to belt the cork centre over the right field fence, yet both Lewis and Williams performed this feat yesterday. Kelly hit one forty miles over the wire screen in centre field, but because of the new ruling the blow was held to a two-base hit.

A southpaw will create havoc with the present Spokane batting order. Starting with Lewis, Manager Wicker has four left handed hitters in order. All four of 'em are counted as clean up hitters, too.

Seattle, April 29.—Timely hitting enabled Seattle to win from Vancouver yesterday 5-3. Beatty stopped a Vancouver rally in the eighth inning when he pulled down Brinker's hard drive on the first base line.

Score—	R.	H.	E.
Seattle	5	5	0
Vancouver	3	6	1

Tacoma, April 29.—Tacoma, with a batting rally in the ninth inning, came from behind and defeated Aberdeen here yesterday by a score of 2-1. Bennett and Clarke were ejected from the game by Umpire McGreevy, following an altercation in the sixth inning.

Score—	R.	H.	E.

M'GRAW TRADES THREE PLAYERS FOR BROOKLYN STAR

New York, April 29.—A big deal was completed here between the New York and Brooklyn Nationals by which Zach Wheat, the crack left fielder of the Brooklyns, and regarded by many as the star outfielder of the National league, will come to the Giants.

In exchange for Wheat Manager McGraw, of New York, has turned over Outfielders John Murray and Dave Robertson, together with Pitcher W. D. (Polly) Perritt to the Brooklyns. Perritt is the former St. Louis National pitcher who jumped to the Pittsburgh Federals last winter, but was persuaded to jump back to the Giants. He has lost all three games in which he started this season, being knocked out of the box in three innings in each of his last two games.

The New York Nationals, in further cutting down its roster, has released Pitcher Kirmayer to Decatur; Pitcher Press to Jersey City and Infielder Reed to Troy.

FAVORITE CAPTURES CLASSIC TURF STAKE

London, April 29.—The one hundred and seventh renewal of the two thousand guineas, the first of the five classic races for three-year-olds, was run over the Rowley Mile, at Newmarket, yesterday. It was won by the favorite Sol Joel's bay colt Pommern, by Polymolus-Nerry Agnes, who started at two to one. Outsiders occupied second and third places, there being L. Noumann's Tournament, 100 to 6, second, and Lord Carnarvon's The Vizier, 25 to 1, third. The field numbered fifteen, the also ran's being His Majesty's Friar Marcus, Apothecary, Bethlehem, Follow Up, Gadabout, Highfield, Letfly, Militus, Rossendale, Sammarco, Spring, Thyme, Sunfire and Swiftfoot.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Another Pitcher Needed by Leafs.

When Wayne Barham rounds into form, Victoria can count upon the former Seal to be a consistent winner. McKenry has already demonstrated that he has the goods, so that Victoria will do with another winning twirler. Jimmie Woods is good enough to retain as a prospect, for the little left-hander is a swell young hurler. Roy Grimes, Elmer Hanson and Howard House must supply the needed slab artist or make way for a new pitcher. It is'nt often that Victoria will be held to two runs as they were yesterday, but another twirler is a necessity if the club is to be a pennant contender.

Jess Willard is Getting Unpopular.

Because of the hard-headed actions of his manager in keeping him from public view, Jess Willard seems destined to fall into the bad graces of the fight fans. Willard was kept hidden from the Gotham folks after his victory over Johnson, simply because he was appearing in vaudeville. Tom Jones even barred the newspapermen when they asked for interviews. The result has been that Willard has been dropped like a hot coal by the eastern sport writers. Willard's vaudeville effort has been a decided frost, mainly because of poor managerial work.

Canada Still Has Star Marathoners.

Though "Jimmy" Duffy is at the front, and Tom Longboat is out of the game, Canadian runners are still able to hold their own and more at the long distance game. The victory of Fabre, the Montreal "plugger" at Boston recently was a great triumph for the Maple Leaf. Fabre ran second to Duffy last year, and his experience gained on that occasion evidently stood him in good stead. He did not make the mistake of dashing to the front at the beginning, but contented himself with a position in the rear until the time came to make his bid and then he ran over the early pace-makers. He used his head as well as his feet, and the combination proved a winner. Had Fabre exercised his "grey matter" to a little better advantage last year, he might have won on that occasion also. But he was comparatively green then and allowed Duffy to practically "kid" him out of first place. Entering into the last mile, he was running neck and neck with the Toronto Irishman, and was probably the fresher of the two. Duffy persuaded him to "slow up," and accommodate his pace with his, and then, when Fabre was napping, "jumped" into a lead that the Frenchman could not overcome.

FORMER CHAMPION REGAINS TROPHY

Miss Violet Pooley is Again Winner of the Flumerfelt Cup

Miss Violet Pooley again captured the Flumerfelt cup, emblematic of the ladies golf championship of the province, at the Oak Bay links yesterday afternoon, when she defeated Mrs. Hutchinson 4 up and 3 to play, in a splendidly contested final. The champion has won this honor on previous occasions, and has also shown brilliant form in Old Country tourneys. Miss Pooley is without a doubt the finest lady golfer on the Pacific coast, so that the victory yesterday was not unexpected, though her opponent, Mrs. Hutchinson, played very fine golf all through the competition. The greens were in perfect shape, quite a gallery following the pair over the last few holes.

Entries for the Pooley bowl, open to all lady golfers on the coast, closed on Monday and play started this afternoon for this trophy. Practically the same field that started in the Flumerfelt cup contest will compete for this bowl, and the competition will probably be finished on Saturday.

A dispatch received from London declares that the open golf championship has been declared off for this year. According to the championship rota the event would have been decided on the course of the Royal Cinque Ports club at Deal in June. The six clubs governing the event—the Royal and Ancient, Honorable Company of Edinburgh Golfers, Royal Liverpool, Royal St. Georges, Prestwick and Royal Cinque Ports—have decided on the postponement until the war is over, but on the resumption of the championship it will be held at Deal.

NAVY CRICKETERS WON CLOSE CONTEST FROM ORR'S ELEVEN

Hard hitting by the Navy cricketers gave them a win over R. O. Orr's eleven at the Canteen grounds yesterday. No less than six of the Navy batsmen went into double figures, while Capt. Orr scored 19. H. Hudson's fielding featured.

HANSON POUNDED BY THE INDIANS

Spokane Won by Free-Hitting; Neighbors and Williams Had Homers

Airtight twirling by "Sally" Salveson kept the Leafs from making it three straight over the Indians yesterday at the ball yard, the Spokane club taking their first game of the series by an 8 to 2 count. The visitors hammered Hanson rather freely in the latter stages of the game, while Salveson managed to hold out for the entire distance. Both twirlers were wild and it was Hanson's inability to get the ball over the plate that enabled Spokane to pile up a big lead. Umpire Frary pulled a bad decision in the eighth that helped Spokane to four runs.

Home runs over the right field fence were chiefly responsible for the big score. Lewis and Williams belted out four sack hits, the latter shoving Lewis across ahead of him in the seventh. Two hits, bases on balls and Kelly's wild heave to third, counted for four more runs in the eighth. Victoria dented the pan in the third on Butler's walk and steal, followed by Kelly's hefty double over the centre field palings. In the eighth, with the bases filled, Hanson fell down on a slow roller, when Victoria looked good for a real rally.

A brace of bad decisions by Umps. Frary did not help matters from a Victoria viewpoint. He called Altman safe at third in the eighth, when he was tagged out, while Butler also had Wuffli at second, only to have Frary declare him safe. In the fatal eighth Marty Nye failed to come in fast enough on Butler's attempted double play, both runners being safe. The breaks of the game went to the Indians, line drives by the Victoria clouters falling into the hands of the Spokane outfielders.

Geo. Kelly led both teams with the stick, getting three of the five Victoria hits. Wuffli, Lewis and Neighbors had a pair of hits each, Butler, Wuffli and Altman getting stolen bases. Haworth went in as pinch hitter in the eighth, drawing a pass. He pegged out one runner in the ninth.

Hunky Shaw's running catch of Murphy's line drive, also clutches by Kelly and Neighbors, were the fielding features.

DAVIES MAY CALL OFF CONTEST
ALL-STAR CARD FOR TO-NIGHT

Nanaimo Promoters Must Show Money; Naval and Military Tourney at Esquimalt

Unless the Nanaimo promoters come through with their certified cheque and the fight agreements for the bout between Al. Davies and Len Holiday, the local amateur star will call off this bout. Billy Davies stated to the Times yesterday that he would not allow the Coal City fight promoters to use Al.'s name, unless they put up the stipulated money in the hands of a Victoria sporting editor.

"Al. has been working out daily since the first of the week," said Bill Davies this morning. "He is paying special attention to road work so that he will have the strength to go the full ten rounds at top speed." The chances are, however, that the bout will be cancelled on Saturday, unless the greenbacks are put up. Davies is not going to make the jump to the professional ranks unless he can secure enough out of the venture to make up for the loss of his amateur standing. A big crowd is looked for to-night at the Canteen hall, when the benefit tournament will be staged for the prize winners at the recent Vancouver Island tourney. Geo. Nicholson, president of the B. C. A. A. U., who has charge of the programme, states that refreshments will be provided and a big night's sport is on the cards.

Among those who have promised to attend are Admiral Story, Commander Hose and officers of H. M. C. S. Rainbow, Colonel Ogilvie, D. O. C., Colonel Holmes, Mr. R. H. Pooley, M. P. P., Mayor Stewart, Reeve McAdam, of Esquimalt, and Mr. W. E. Oliver, president of the Navy League.

Portland, Ore., April 29.—The boxing ban in Portland is lifted. The prizes offered are to be anything but money. The boxing ordinance was passed by the city council yesterday when permission was granted the Oregon State Hotelmen's association to have boxing exhibitions on the programme of their smoker to be held within the next two weeks.

WILL LOAD AT PORTLAND.

Portland, Ore., April 29.—Two Japanese steamers are scheduled to arrive at Portland soon after the middle of next month—the Kurohime Maru and the Bankoko Maru. The former is bringing a general cargo for Mitsui & Co., and she will load lumber for the Orient under charter to the Pacific Export Lumber company. She will clear for Calcutta. The Bankoko Maru is coming light and will take out a cargo of lumber for the China Import and Export Lumber Company, clearing for North China. Both steamers will handle close to 8,000,000 feet of lumber.

NORWEGIAN LINE IS COMING TO SEATTLE

Olsen Steamship Company is Inaugurating New Service From Norway

Seattle, Wash., April 29.—Word that the steamer Bravo, of the Fred Olsen company, of Christiania, Norway, is on her way to Seattle as the first sailing of a new steamship line between Norway and the Pacific coast, was received yesterday by the chamber of commerce in a letter from Fred Olsen himself, head of the shipbuilding and shipping company, which has a large number of ships in operation.

The Bravo, according to Mr. Olsen's letter, is about due in San Francisco, and will continue on to Seattle as the northern terminus of the line. On board the Bravo is the son of Mr. Olsen, who will arrange for an agent of the line in Seattle to secure business.

The decision of the Norwegian company to extend its sailings to Seattle was largely influenced by letters from the transportation bureau of the chamber of commerce, which entered into correspondence with Mr. Olsen early in January, when word was received that the Norwegian firm was contemplating entering the Pacific coast trade.

Mr. Olsen in his letter informs the chamber that not only has the Bravo been instructed to make Seattle, but that other steamers of 10,000 tons capacity each are building for the line between Christiania and Seattle, and that, on advice from the bureau, he has under consideration the installation of cold storage facilities for the shipment of Washington fruit to Europe.

PREPARING FOR TRADING TRIP TO ARCTIC COAST

Seattle, Wash., April 29.—Capt. John Backland, hardy Norseman, veteran Arctic trader and master and owner of the American schooner C. S. Holmes, is preparing for his ninth cruise of the Far North and expects to start for sea between May 20 and 25.

The Holmes is now at the plant of the Seattle Construction & Drydock company, where she is being prepared for bucking the great ice floes of the Arctic. Eleven feet of iron is being placed on the bow of the vessel, extending from the stem to the forefoot, and the hull is being sheathed in iron bark so that the vessel will be able to withstand the grinding of the bergs through which she will have to pass in delivering her cargo at Point Barrow and to the trading stations and missions of Behring Sea and the Arctic.

Capt. Backland lost the schooner Transit two years ago in the ice about five miles south of Point Barrow. He sold the schooner Volante after using her several seasons in the north to southeastern Alaska interests, where she is now in the cannery trade.

On her coming cruise the Holmes will deliver cargo to six trading stations and to the Methodist mission at Sinuk, which is about thirty miles northwest of Nome. She will call at St. Lawrence Island, Cape Prince of Wales and Point Barrow during her cruise. The Holmes will carry a cargo of approximately 1,100 tons, including all sorts of supplies, groceries and other freight, a par of which will be traded to the Eskimos for furs.

BRINGING REDWOOD FOR BARQUENTINE HAWAII

The steam schooner Rainier is expected from California ports in the next few days with 80,000 feet of redwood for the American barquentine Hawaii, which is to load 1,250,000 feet of lumber at Genoa Bay for Capetown, South Africa. The barquentine was to have been towed to the mills yesterday, but the weather was too heavy, and she is still riding at her anchors in the Roads waiting for the storm to subside.

OPEN NAVIGATION ON ST. LAWRENCE MAY 6

Metagama Will Be First Ship to Leave Montreal, Followed by Pretoria

Eastbound navigation from Montreal will be opened this year on May 6, when the new C. P. R. steamship Metagama clears for Liverpool. Two days later the Allan liner Pretoria is scheduled to sail out of the Quebec port bound for Glasgow. Following these two ships other large passenger vessels will ply the waters of the St. Lawrence, and the greatest of Canadian waterways will once again be open for navigation for the next six months.

During the winter the C. P. R. and Allan liners as well as the White Star-Dominion ships have been sailing out of Halifax and St. John. The spring schedules have now been arranged, and trans-Atlantic steamship services via the great inland waterway will be resumed within the next week.

This will be the first voyage of the Metagama out of Montreal. She is a new liner and has only been in service for a few months. Along with the Missanabie, she will maintain the C. P. R. trans-Atlantic service until the Melita and Minnedosa are ready for the trade. The company has become a strong believer in the one-cabin liner, and a short time ago ordered four of them. This type of ship is becoming exceptionally popular with travelers.

Steerage Fare Drops.

The White Star line announces a drop in the eastbound steerage rate from New York to Liverpool. The reduction goes into effect with the sailing of the Cymric on May 14. The new fare will be $33.75, a reduction of nearly three dollars. The Cymric is a one-cabin ship and the cabin rate of $50 will not be subjected to any alteration.

BUENAVENTURA DOCKS TO-MORROW MORNING

Maple Leaf Steamship Completing Trip From New York; Canada Spoken

Daylight to-morrow morning will see the Maple Leaf steamship Buenaventura, Capt. Fitzsimmons, come to an anchorage off William Head to await the inspection of the quarantine officials. Last night a wireless message was received from the vessel, which stated that she was nearing the Columbia river and would arrive off the Head at 5.30 o'clock to-morrow morning. It is expected that the Buenaventura will berth at the outer docks at 7.30 o'clock.

The Maple Leaf ship is coming from New York via the Panama canal, and is bringing a full cargo of steel products and general merchandise. She has several hundred tons of freight for Victoria, including a big electric shovel for excavation work at the Bamberton cement works. It is expected that the vessel will clear for Vancouver to-morrow afternoon.

Canada Arriving Sunday.

Capt. Hori, master of the Osaka liner Canada Maru, sent a radiogram to the local agents, R. P. Rithet & Co., this morning, stating that he would arrive in port from the Orient on Sunday. The vessel is bringing in 102 passengers, of which number 33 will disembark at Victoria. She is filled with cargo and will put off 400 tons of rice, sugar, miso, say, sake, porcelain, curios, furniture and provisions. For Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver she has close on to 4,000 tons.

To-morrow the steamship Chicago Maru will sail from this port for the Orient with a full cargo and a small list of passengers.

The Blue Funnel liner Protesilaus is now at Tacoma loading 12,000 tons of grain for the United Kingdom. She will make the voyage via the Panama canal and will call at San Pedro for additional cargo en route. The ship will be leaving the Sound about May 5.

SCHOONER GETS GOOD RATE.

San Francisco, April 29.—The schooner Sophie Christensen, now loading on Gray's Harbor for Sydney, has been chartered by Comyn, Mackell & Company, for another trip to Sydney next October or November, at 67s. 6d., with the option of 77s. and 6d. for Melbourne or Adelaide. Comyn, Mackell & Company have also taken the schooner Okanagan at the same rates to load her cargo next fall on the Sound. The Okanagan just left Ludlow for Salaverry.

LIGHTSHIP DRIVEN AGROUND IN STORM

Craft Moored at Sandheads is Being Pounded by Heavy Seas; Ships Standing by

Caught in the fierce northwest gale which swept the Gulf of Georgia in the early hours this morning, the Sandheads lightship was driven ashore at the entrance to the Fraser river and is now being pounded by heavy seas, while several ships are standing by ready to put lines aboard as soon as the weather moderates. It is expected that the lightship will be floated, and after having necessary repairs effected, will be moored in her old position.

When the C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide was bound for Vancouver from Seattle at 5 o'clock this morning she noticed the lightship out of position, and upon a closer examination found that the craft was aground with the seas breaking over her. The water was too shallow, and the weather too heavy for the Adelaide to render any assistance, but she flashed a radiogram immediately to the Point Grey and Gonzales stations. A tug was dispatched from Vancouver to stand by the ship, and the Sampson, of the public works department, was ordered from New Westminster. It is expected that the fishery cruiser Newington will be sent from Esquimalt this afternoon with a heavy hawser.

The cause of the accident to the lightship is not known. It would have been impossible for the craft to drag its anchors, as she has two five-ton anchors well buried in the sand bottom, and her cables are stouter than those used by the lighthouse tenders, so that it is not likely they parted. Seeing that the storm was getting too severe for the craft and that she would tear herself to pieces by tugging so violently at the chains, it is believed that the crew decided to slip their anchors, hoist sail and run for Steveston, but, deviating from the channel, piled up on the shore.

The lightship struck at about high water and some difficulty may be experienced in getting her off. The craft is stoutly built and will stand a lot of pounding and straining. The lightship was formerly the sealing schooner Thomas F. Bayard and was purchased by the marine department about two years ago. She was built on the Atlantic coast forty years ago and is as sound to-day as when she first took the water.

The lightship has a crew of two men, and they are still on the craft.

MAQUINNA IS MAKING LAST SKAGWAY TRIP

Leaves To-morrow Night and Upon Return Will Be Replaced by Princess May

Still another trip is to be made to Skagway by the steamer Princess Maquinna, but it is expected that this will really be her last voyage in this service. The Maquinna arrived yesterday afternoon from the Alaska port after an uneventful trip, and she will clear for the north again to-morrow night. Upon her return in ten days a new service will have been provided her, and the Princess May will take over the Skagway trade.

Several months ago the Maquinna was ordered to make a trip to Skagway in place of the Princess May. Considerable cattle had to be shipped north, and as the Maquinna was more suitable than the May, the change was made. Ever since then the Maquinna has been making her last trip to Skagway, but it is announced that this will be the last time she will sail for Skagway this year.

Steamers Pay Off.

Yesterday afternoon the crew of the steamer Princess Mary was paid off, and this afternoon the Princess Alice is signing off her crew. Both ships will be laid up for a short time. It is expected that the Princess Mary will be used on the night run between here and Vancouver very soon, but the Alice will probably be idle for a month at least.

The steamer Princess Victoria, which has been laid up for a few days, will return to the triangular run to-morrow afternoon, steaming at 1.45 o'clock to Vancouver. During the summer the Victoria and Charlotte will maintain this service.

ANY DYSPEPTIC CAN GET WELL

By Taking "Fruit-a-tives," Says Capt. Swan

Life is very miserable to those who suffer with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Biliousness. This letter from Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) tells how to get quick relief from Stomach Trouble.

Port Burwell, Ont., May 8th, 1913.
"A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken "Fruit-a-tives" and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that "Fruit-a-tives" have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking "Fruit-a-tives" according to directions, any person with Dyspepsia will get benefit."
H. SWAN.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size 25c., or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

COMMITTED SUICIDE BY TAKING POISON

Man Had Been Dead Some Time When Discovered in Hotel Room

Quite evidently the victim of his own suicidal act, the body of a man who had registered as J. Wilson was found last night in the room in the Jubilee hotel, Johnson street, which he had engaged on Monday night. A bottle of carbolic acid in a drawer and a small quantity of the poison in a cup near the head of the bed indicated the means he had taken to end his life.

Nothing is known here about the man. Police officers who saw the body to-day recognized it as that of a man whom they had noticed about the streets in the downtown section for a week or so past, and who was apparently in poor health. There was nothing in his clothing to give any clue to his identity, and even the name signed on the register may be an assumed one, especially as he used only an initial for the first name.

He had a sum of $28 in cash and a few small odds and ends, none of which gives any indication as to where he may have come from, or what his business was. He had scraped the label off the bottle of poison as a precaution against being traced in that way.

Wilson had not been seen about the hotel on Tuesday, when the clerk, Frank Dovey, looked into his room and saw him lying on his bed. It was supposed he was resting, and he was not disturbed, but when he did not appear about yesterday, a closer look was taken last evening, and then it was found that he had been dead a considerable time.

The police are trying to get some information about the man, and the inquest will not be held until Saturday. The man was about 40 years old, five feet ten in height and had a small moustache.

WATERSHED QUESTION TO BE DISCUSSED

Subject Will Be Before Aldermen To-morrow; Contract Finished in Two Weeks

Among the prinipal matters before the council in committee to-morrow morning will be the question of the Sooke Lake watershed, and the future management of the Central Employment bureau.

Recently the land agent of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo railway wrote reminding the council of the negotiations to date, and asking for some intimation on the intention to be adopted. The Sooke watershed was offered at a price of $20.40 an acre for an estimated acreage of 14,900, or approximately $304,000. In a statement submitted by the company to the comptroller on December 11, 1913, as revised in the letter to Mayor Morley on December 14 following, the company offered an option on Leech river of $480,000, subject to a ten per cent discount if paid by May 1915. ($432,000) The surveys have never been made, though the area of watershed has been estimated at 17,000 acres. Naturally a considerable time will be occupied in making these surveys.

While the council of 1915 has not expressly confirmed the action of the council of 1913 in turning down the proposal to purchase the Leech river watershed, it has always been understood that no action would be taken in that regard, and since the reserve which the government has set on the waters not already recorded on the river has been announced, there can be no fear of the city being supplanted by vested interests if at some future time the source of supply is required. This reserve was established last week, and has an important bearing on the watershed question.

As yet the city has made no provision for the purchase of Sooke watershed, although the by-law covers that section of the work.

It contented itself with financing the actual construction, which according to the water commissioner after a visit yesterday will be completed the second week in May, or about 14 days hence, by the laying of the concrete pipe. The financing was done out of money borrowed from the Bank of British North America against the security of the unsold bonds. If the purchase of Sooke watershed is to be accelerated, some provision will have to be made for a survey prior to the necessary conveyance.

Some financial matters will come before the committee meeting, and there is a prospect of a lengthy discussion on the future of bureau, the acting superintendent having a letter in on the subject for the guidance of the aldermen in reaching a decision.

Canadian Peace Centenary.—A letter has been received from the secretary, E. H. Scammell, of the Canadian Peace Centenary, indicating that a party of visitors to the San Francisco gathering will pass through Victoria about July 21, and suggesting a public reception here.

During April the members of the chapter had contributed twenty-six pairs of socks, 1 scarf, 3 pillows and cases, 2 pairs wristlets, 2 belts, 2 shirts, and a quantity of linen. Letters of condolence were sent to Lady Tupper, and of sympathy to the wives of the officers of the 50th Highland regiment who suffered in the recent action at the front.

LINEN COLLECTION

Motor Owners Who Have Promised to Help Asked to Foregather on Saturday.

All owners of motors and jitneys who have kindly offered their cars for purpose of assisting in the Red Cross old linen shower on Saturday are asked to assemble at the Alexandra club, Courtney street, at 9 a. m. An offer of the use of any further private cars for the same purpose will be very much appreciated. The boy scouts, members of the Y. M. C. A., and pupils of the public schools who are assisting will meet at the same place and time, and escorts will be formed to cover every street and district. To facilitate collections it is asked that parcels be made up and placed outside the front door of houses by 9 o'clock in the morning.

The smallest bit of old clean linen will be most acceptable, as articles are required from dressings and plugs of a few inches square up to single sheets, full or half size. Old double sheets, old soft table linen, towels, oddments, and old whitewear of all kinds will be most useful. Arrangements are being made for every street to be visited, and as nearly as possible there will be someone ready to take parcels from every house. In order to give everyone a chance to get their contributions in, the Alexandra ballroom will be kept open until 9 p. m. Collections will be taken up until 1 p. m., for the convenience of the public, but in the event of a complete canvass not being effected by that time people with parcels who can do so are asked to leave their gifts at the Alexandra ballroom.

FORMER POLICEMAN IS SENT TO PRISON

Sold Liquor Without a License at His Premises on Saturday Night

Ex-Sergeant of Police George Carson was this morning sent to jail for six months for having sold liquor without a license in the premises used by him as Turkish baths at 531 Yates street.

The defence raised was that he had disposed of the business to a Mrs. McLean, but the magistrate did not consider that this was a very reliable piece of evidence, and in any case pointed out that the accused had still a greater interest in it than the supposed purchaser.

The case for the prosecution was heard yesterday, and this morning the defence was presented by W. C. Moresby and George Powell.

Mr. Moresby, outlining the defence, stated that while formerly Mr. Carson was proprietor of the Turkish bath business carried on at 531 Yates street, this had been, on April 3, sold to Mrs. McLean, and he was not there last Saturday evening in any way as an owner, agent or servant.

Mr. Carson went into the witness box and produced an agreement between himself and Mrs. McLean for the sale of the business for $200, on account of which sum he had received $60. Mrs. McLean was an experienced masseuse, and there was also employed there David Headland, a capable masseur and bath attendant. He dropped in frequently to make the new proprietor acquainted with his patrons, for which he received no pay. He described the lay of the premises and the position of the various persons after Parson and his friends had entered.

It was stated by the witness that he had left the room to get a chair, and when he had returned the bottles had been on the table and Headland had been serving drinks. He had had a drink with the others, and after the second round, Mrs. McLean had asked him to get the change. He had gone to the till, had got a half dollar and had handed it to Parson. None of the receipts of the business had been coming to him since April 3; he had ordered no liquor and had no property in the liquor seized by the police. He had not gone to the ice-chest nor taken any bottles out of it.

In cross-examination by City Prosecutor Harrison, Mr. Carson said he had drawn up the agreement himself, but it was not signed in the presence of witnesses. He denied having made any statement to Detective-Sergeant O'Leary that he had been retained in Mrs. McLean's employment, but he admitted having seen liquor supplied and paid for since April 3.

"You knew, from your long experience as a police officer, that what was going on there was illegal?" Mr. Harrison asked.

"I presume it was," the defendant replied.

"And you knew everyone who was present at that sale, including the spotters, were guilty?"

"I did."

Mr. Carson told the magistrate that patients were supplied with liquor on physician's prescriptions, though none were while he conducted the place. People who came in for a bath often brought liquor with them, and it was nothing unusual to pick up six dozen empties in the booths in the course of a week.

J. D. Bell, who had been a patient at the baths for three weeks, said the bottles had been taken from the ice-chest by Mrs. McLean.

In rebuttal Detective-Sergeant O'Leary stated that when he visited the premises on Saturday night Carson pulled out the agreement of sale, saying he had disposed of the business, but his services had been retained by Mrs. McLean, and he came over every night. This was a voluntary statement by accused.

Magistrate Jay, reviewing the evidence, remarked that the testimony of a spotter might sometimes be looked upon with a certain amount of suspicion, but the evidence of the young man who had accompanied him without any knowledge of his mission, was entirely reliable. A point which had never been touched on by the defence was that Parson had asked how much the drinks were, and Carson had said 57 cents. This made it clear that Carson was the seller.

The document produced by Carson was one to be looked on with suspicion. The sale was a sort of conditional one, as Carson had stated in the box that if Mrs. McLean had not paid the amount agreed upon he would take the business back. As a matter of fact he had a greater financial interest in the business on Saturday last than she had. The document had never been registered and there had never been any final possession given Mrs. McLean. As to the other witness for the defence, Bell, his condition was such that his evidence was quite unreliable.

In regard to the penalty the act was very drastic and left little or no discretion to the magistrate. It was fixed as not less than six months nor more than twelve months' imprisonment. The sentence of the court would be six months in jail.

LOCAL CASUALTIES REPORTED AT FRONT

Victorians Among Seriously Wounded Soldiers; Resident's Brother Killed

George E. Deakin, of North Hampshire road, has been advised of the death in battle recently of his brother, Corporal Horace Rupert Deakin, of the First East Lancashire regiment, at the age of 27. The deceased was an excellent shot, and spent some years in India. Before the war broke out he was engaged on the Halifax borough police force, and being a reservist, at once returned to the colors. A letter from him appeared in the columns of the Times a few weeks ago, describing the conditions in the trenches.

Private John A. Turney, a local boy, reported seriously wounded, aged 35, joined the 50th Highlanders on the outbreak of the war, having been employed with F. J. Hart & Co. when resident here. For four years he served with the Cyclist company of the 1st Buckinghamshire Rifles.

Private Ernest Owen Aves, also seriously wounded, was also a member of the local Highland regiment. He is 32 years of age.

Private William Thomas Lemmon, of the 10th Battalion, who was mentioned in yesterday's casualty list as being seriously wounded, is a brother of Stanley Lemmon, of the C. P. R. Belleville street ticket office. The injured soldier was born in Emerson, Man., and resided for several years in Winnipeg with his parents. He later moved west to Medicine Hat, where he was in the employ of the post office. When war broke out he enlisted with the regiment of the prairie town.

Reports to the effect that Jock Youson, of Victoria, who went with the first contingent from here, had been wounded have proved untrue. A letter was received here yesterday by friends from him. He was, at the time the letter was written, in England engaged as gunnery instructor in the training of recruits, having previously obtained his gunnery certificate.

NEW FIRM OPENING

Booth & Booth Starting Hat and Fur Store, and Will Have Fur Storage Department.

On Saturday there will be opened a new hat and fur store in the premises at 909 Government street, the business being commenced by Booth & Booth, both bright and active young business men with much experience.

The premises have been most attractively fitted up, the colors used being white and a slight relief in black. The fittings are of the newest and handsomest, and the store will present a decidedly fine appearance when all is ready for the opening.

The new firm will carry a full line of hats, straw, Panama and felt, in all styles and colors. In the fall a complete line of furs will be opened out for the inspection of customers. George E. Booth comes here from the well known firm of Sellars & Gough, Yonge street, Toronto, and Charles R. Booth has been for four years with Fitzpatrick & O'Connell, and has had much experience in the hat department. The furs are under order, and will be opened up about the first of August. The stock of hats is now being got into place in readiness for the opening on Saturday.

A feature which will be added to the business is that of fur storage which will be under the charge of George E. Booth, who looked after that part of the Sellars & Gough business for three years. This is the first time anything of the kind has been undertaken here, and it is certain to prove a great boon to owners of furs. During the season when furs are laid up they can have them stored and cared for by the new firm, which undertakes all risks of fire, burglary and moths for the owners, and any small repairs that are needed will be made.

With the careful management and tried experience which the members of the firm will bring to it, and a full assortment of head coverings and furs, there should be a prosperous future ahead of Booth & Booth.

THROWN FROM HORSE DURING ROUTE MARCH

Lt.-Col. Holmes Sustains Nasty Fall but Pluckily Continues With His Men

The start of the route march of the 48th Battalion this morning was marked by a mishap to Lt.-Col. W. J. H. Holmes, its commanding officer, that might easily have been more serious than it was.

The colonel was riding along the line as the men were turning off Fort street to Yates street, and as the hill there has been rendered very smooth and slippery by motor traffic, his horse slipped suddenly and threw the rider heavily to the ground. Motor Constable Allen was nearby, and he assisted Colonel Holmes to rise, and Patrol Driver Davis also lent a hand.

Although badly shaken up, and with his back strained, Colonel Holmes pluckily insisted on remounting and following after the column, with which he continued.

The battalion is on a two-days' route march, which will take them to the vicinity of Finlayson Arm. Turning off Yates street and proceeding by way of Quadra street and King's road the men marched past the fountain and out by the Gorge Road to Langford Plains and along the Malahat drive to the Arm, where they will bivouac for the night. The return march will commence to-morrow morning shortly after eight o'clock.

The distance is fifteen miles each way, and the experience will be a valuable one for the battalion.

The Canadian Mounted Rifles, which corps has been bivouacking at Sidney, returns this afternoon. It is marching in from the head of the peninsula by way of the east road, and will pass through the city by way of Douglas, Yates and Fort streets. Lt.-Col. Bott, who went out yesterday afternoon with members of his staff, is in command of the corps on the return march. Since they left the camp at the Willows the men have been in constant communication with the camp by means of signallers stationed on the various hills.

HAVE YOU A BAD SORE? READ HOW ZAM-BUK HEALS

No matter where the sore, or how caused, Zam-Buk, the great herbal healer, will be found adequate to the case. Unlike ordinary salves, Zam-Buk is purely herbal—contains no animal fat, no poisonous coloring matter. Read how Mr. B. Ellis, of Castleton, Ont., proved its value. He says: "I suffered for years from a running sore on my toe which started from a frost bite. The pain was so severe I was unable to sleep. The sore went right to the bone and the foot was terribly swollen and inflamed. In vain I tried numerous remedies. At last, seeing an advertisement for Zam-Buk, I decided to give it a trial. The result has been most satisfactory. Zam-Buk quickly eased the pain and took away the swelling and inflammation. Perseverance with Zam-Buk has entirely healed the sore."

For eczema, ulcers, abscesses, scalp sores, and all skin troubles, Zam-Buk is unequalled. It is also just as good for piles, sprains, cuts, scalds, or as a "first aid." As soon as applied, the rich healing essences of which Zam-Buk is composed penetrate right to the root of the trouble, and so stimulate the cells that new healty tissue is quickly formed. Zam-Buk heals from the bottom up, hence its cures are permanent. All druggists and stores.

To obtain free trial box, send this article, name of paper, and 1c. stamp to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and truthful:

London, Ont.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long or walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine I felt like a new woman. I could work from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK CORRIN, 132 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N.Y.—"I was ailing all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 299 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

PRESIDENT TENER MUST CLEAR UP THE MUDDLE

New York, April 29.—The game between the New York and Boston Nationals was declared forfeited this afternoon by Umpire Quigley because James Gaffney, of the Boston club, refused to permit the team to play the Giants with Benny Kauff, crack centrefielder of the Brooklyn Federals, in the Giants' line-up. Kauff jumped to the Giants about five minutes before the time for calling the game.

Notwithstanding that the game had been declared forfeited, play was started fifteen minutes after the time scheduled for the game.

Umpire Eason said that President Tener of the National league had told him that Kauff should not play. He was left out of the Giants' line-up.

McGraw played the game after reminding Gaffney that it had been declared forfeited.

There still is dispute whether the game now being played is merely a practice game or the official game. After Umpire Eason got in communication with President Tener the game started as the second double-header, the first of which was forfeited to New York. This game eventually may be thrown out. It remains for President Tener to clear up the muddle.

In further discussing his refusal to play against Kauff, President Gaffney took the stand that he did not care to become involved in any baseball war.

"My team is not permitted to play against any Federal league club, neither can it play against any Federal league players," he argued.

FINED $50.

Washington, April 29.—Edward Ainsmith, catcher of the Washington Americans, escaped a thirty-day jail sentence without option of a fine for assaulting a street car motorman, when Judge Pugh, in police court to-day, reconsidered his original sentence and placed him on probation and fined him $50.

ELKS' SPLENDID TRIBUTE.

Tacoma, April 29.—With the fraternal compliments of the Tacoma Elks, a cheque calling for $1,814.17 was presented last night to Charles Swain at a meeting of the local lodge. James O'Neill made the presentation speech, in which he voiced the hope that Swain would be able to turn the offering to good use to help him out of the unfortunate circumstances which the accident of last winter visited upon him.

CHANGE IN DEMANDS BEING MADE BY JAPAN

Tokio, April 29.—Japan's new proposals to China show concessions, according to the Japan Mail. They are said to omit the demand for the non-alienation of China's coastal territory. Out of consideration for Great Britain, some modification relative to railroad concessions in South China is considered probable.

QUOTATIONS SOUGHT LOWER LEVEL TO-DAY

Athabasca Depressed by Share Offerings and Demand Scant

For the most part prices sought a slightly lower level to-day on the Victoria stock exchange, and while generally levels were upheld, one or two soft places appeared in the list. Thus Athabasca was depressed by a surplus of share offerings, and, there being no aggressive demand, sellers were forced to lower the quotation.

STRONG INTERESTS BUY WHEAT ON EARLY TRADES

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, April 28.—An early break of half a cent in wheat futures the first few minutes of the session was followed by unexpected purchases for all months by strong interests. Prices struck higher levels, but for the balance of the session there was a dragging market with a downturn of one to two cents from high levels. Market closed half or more over bottom prices. Hints of export business from the seaboard, dry weather bulletin sent out by Washington covering eastern states, and over-sold local trade helped early buying.

May corn covered a narrow range. The dry weather is threatening short hay crop and this has its effect on corn. Cash houses bought May on a fair scale early.

Dip of less than half cent for all months for oats. Newport News, Va., alone cleared over a million oats.

STEEL COMMON CHOSEN LEADER OF ACTIVITY

War Stocks Buoyant In Trading of Wall Street Session

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, April 29.—After some irregularity the so-called war stocks, which is to say those favored with war contracts, were quite buoyant, whereas the coppers lagged. Seemingly the advance in copper shares has about measured the upturn in the metal. At least the disposition has become quite pronounced to realize on coppers, especially on the bulges.

Taken as a whole, stocks showed strengthening signs in the last hour's trading under the leadership of Steel common, which fluctuated admirably at 60 and thereabout.

PLAN FOR CONTROL OF THE DRINK EVIL

Chancellor of the Exchequer Introduces Amendment to Defence of Realm Act

London, April 29.—Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George made known in the House of Commons this afternoon his plan to deal with the question of the too great consumption of alcoholic liquors in England.

He proposes a very heavy surtax on both spirits and beers containing more than 7 per cent. of proof spirits, and the duty on spirits is to be doubled.

In areas producing materials of war, or in which transport work is performed, and in some camp areas, the government is to have complete control of the saloon drink business.

The root and branch treatment originally proposed by Chancellor Lloyd George for dealing with the liquor problem in its relation to the output of munitions of war, dwindled to a modest pruning when the chancellor presented the government's scheme for resisting the sale of drink. The chancellor in his opening sentence indicated that difficulties had been met with.

"After weeks of trying to find a solution for the question I am prepared to take a pledge never politically to touch drink again."

Nothing but real necessity had driven the government to submit proposals on this subject, but it was above all important that the country should be able to utilize every available resource to increase the supply of munitions of war. When the time came to drive the Germans out of Flanders and France, he said, the expenditure of ammunition and other war material must be on a greater scale and of a more sustained character than anything yet witnessed in any war.

The chancellor laid particular emphasis upon these remarks for the benefit of those who might object to his present proposals.

"These are necessary," he declared, "to insure victory, not ultimate victory, but victory soon without unnecessary loss of life."

Dealing with excessive drinking among some workmen, the chancellor remarked: "Everybody agreed on the existence of this evil until the remedies were foreshadowed."

The slackness in some British shipyards was causing serious anxiety to those in command of the fleet.

In introducing the present bill to amend the Defence of the Realm Act, the chancellor said he was not proposing a solution of the temperance question, but only an act of discipline during the war.

With reference to his taxing plan, the chancellor estimated that the double duty on spirits would yield the same total as heretofore, allowing for decreased consumption. Beer would bring in £1,600,000 extra and wines £1,500,000 extra.

In the controlled areas the government was to have the power, for the period of the war, to close any saloon considered injurious.

Compensation will be paid to all those whose property is appropriated.

Regarding beer up to 43 specific gravity, there is to be no change. Above that there will be a graduated surtax to discourage heavy brews, rising to 36 shillings per barrel.

The duties on wine are to be quadrupled. Sparking wines will pay 15 shillings a gallon.

TO-DAY'S TRADING ON THE WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, April 29.—Liverpool cables were easier than expected this morning, especially on Manitobas, which caused a lower opening on May and July on the local market. Following the opening there was some strength shown on the appearance of buying orders, few being inclined to sell, and values advanced ½c. to 1½c. from the opening. Excellent crop prospects generally caused a sagging spell from the high points, but later higher points than in the early hours were reached.

Wheat opened 1½c. lower to ½c. higher; oats opened ½c. to ½c. lower, and flax unchanged to ½c. higher. At about noon May wheat was 162⅞, July 162⅞, and October 125½. The cash demand was fair for Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 grades of wheat, with offerings light and not equal to requirements. There was a good inquiry for No. 1 feed oats, but other grades were not being asked for. Barley and flax were unchanged, nothing doing in either.

CAPTURE OF VILLAGE IMPORTANT SUCCESS

Uszok-Berezna Railroad Line Endangered While Russians Hold Lubnia

Petrograd, April 29.—The Russian occupation of Lubnia, a small village to the northwest of Uszok Pass, was a decided achievement in the Carpathian campaign for the Russians, in that it seriously endangers the important railroad line between the town of Uszok and Berezna, a line which made possible the extended Austrian operations in this region, and retarded the Russian advance in the direction of the Uszok Pass.

This railroad, running just to the rear of the Austrian centre and paralleling the line of the most important summits of the Reskid mountains, has enabled the Austrians to transfer troops almost instantly to any point on this part of the Carpathian front, a section which received the main force of the Russian lunge toward Hungary. During the last week, as the Russian advance developed in the direction of Uszok Pass, the Austrians exerted their entire strength to protect this railroad line.

The furious Austrian efforts to retake Lubnia culminated during the night of April 26-27, when they reached the Russian positions, but they were forced after a hand-to-hand encounter to retire.

The authorities report that in this region, as well as in the regions of Lupkow and Stry, the Austrian troops were not assisted by the Germans, who are said to be concentrating at Cracow and in Western Galicia.

SEIZURE OF CETRIANA TO BE INVESTIGATED

British Vessel Detained at Ensenada, Lower California; Cruiser Newcastle Coming North.

Washington, April 29.—To investigate the seizure of the British steamship Cetriana by the Mexican authorities of Ensenada, Lower California, the British cruiser Newcastle is reported on her way northward to-day from Central American waters.

It is stated that the action of the admiralty was taken on the request of the British vice-consul at Ensenada, when he failed to secure the release of the Cetriana and the remission of a fine of $50,000 against the ship.

There is $150,000 in bullion aboard the ship, sent through by Admiral T. B. Howard, of the United States Pacific fleet, at the request of owners at Mazatlan.

San Diego, Cal., April 29.—Unconfirmed reports received here to-day say that marines from the American cruiser Denver have been landed at Ensenada. It is reported that they were landed under constructions from Washington.

DEAN OF CANTERBURY WILL NOT SWEAR OFF

London, April 29.—The clergy comprising the Lower House of the Convocation of Canterbury are willing to set the nation an example in the matter of temperance, but they are not willing to abstain entirely from alcohol. This was the sense of the meeting to-day of the Lower House which passed a resolution "inviting the clergy and laity of the Church of England to set an example of self-sacrifice" in the matter of alcoholic liquors.

Several voted only after being assured that total abstinence was not expected of them. The Dean of Canterbury said flatly that he refused to swear off altogether. He had tried it before, he said, and found it a failure, in that it impaired his health.

HOW TURKS ATTEMPTED TO PREVENT LANDING

London, April 29.—The British war office issued the following announcement on the Dardanelles operations late yesterday:

"In the face of continued opposition the allied troops now have established themselves across the end of the Gallipoli peninsula from a point near the east of Eski Hisarlik to the mouth of a stream on the opposite side.

"They also have beaten off attacks at Sari Bair and are advancing steadily.

"The Turks had made considerable preparations to hamper our landings. Wire entanglements under the sea as well as on land and deep pits with spikes at the bottom were among the obstacles overcome by our troops."

Constantinople, April 29.—The following official communication regarding the Dardanelles operations has been issued:

"The enemy has renewed his attempt against Kaba Tepeh and the south coast of Gallipoli, but was repulsed successfully.

"Fresh forces of the enemy yesterday attacked near the coast at Kum Kaleh, but were obliged to retreat, abandoning three machine guns."

TWO CHIEF POINTS OF INTEREST TO-DAY

London, April 29.—The fighting on the Gallipoli Peninsula, across which the British have strung their forces, and the efforts to dislodge the Germans from Steenstraate, the only point on the west bank of the Yser which the invaders have been able to hold since the recent rush in Flanders, are to-day the war activities which hold the greatest possibilities of far-reaching results.

WILL ORGANIZE A BASE HOSPITAL STAFF

Vancouver Medicos Offer Their Service to the Military Authorities

Vancouver, April 29.—Vancouver medical men are all ready to furnish the personnel of a base hospital in France. While no authorized statement has come yet from the leaders of the movement, it was learned last night that the plans have gone so far that the offer has been made to the military authorities. Prominent young physicians have joined the organization, and even now are holding themselves in readiness for a call whenever the military authorities officially sanction their organization. This may not be for months, or it may be almost immediately. Not knowing just when their services will be needed, they are ready to answer the empire's call at any time, day or night.

Civilization in the present greatest war of history is giving full recognition to the services of the medical men who have come from all parts of the world, and their share in the armies is as important as the fighting itself. Vancouver will not be behind in this branch of the conflict, according to the details of the plan which already are so well worked out. There will be 32 physicians, 74 nurses and 205 men. The latter are trained thoroughly in first aid and their duties will be the same as those performed by the army medical corps.

The leaders of the movement were not ready last night to give out details of the organization, but said that the list of volunteers had been forwarded to Victoria. Among those who already have signed the roll are Drs. A. S. Monro, R. E. McEachren, Proctor, Stithbein, Funk and Major F. C. McTavish.

A medical man said last night:

"We had some doubht in the beginning as to whether a base hospital staff could be organized here. There is no doubt now at all. Soon after the call for volunteers went out we had the required number of doctors, and we have found that we could have got twice the number."

FOUR GERMANS UNDER ARREST AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, April 29.—Four prominent German residents of Vancouver were arrested to-day because the police believe that on Sunday night the quartette, with a number of other compatriots, engaged in a celebration of the German advance against Canadian troops near Ypres. It happened that the first and a very heavy casualty list of Vancouver men killed and wounded reached Vancouver on Sunday night and it was an unlucky time for the Germans to select to celebrate anything. The Germans concerned declare they merely were having a house-warming, the party having been arranged several days previously. It is probable that the four will be sent to the detention camp for alien enemies at Nanaimo.

The men now detained are Paul Koop, a capitalist; Baron von Luttowitz, a relative and intimate friend of the kaiser; Dr. Otto Grunert, and Frederick Stritzel.

NORTHERN PACIFIC SETS UP NEW COAST RECORD

Flavel, Ore., April 29.—Exceeding all records for the trip, the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company's new steamer Northern Pacific reached here yesterday from San Francisco in 25 hours and 40 minutes. Weather conditions were favorable for the trip. The vessel left San Francisco at 10.30 a.m. Tuesday and docked at Flavel at 12.10 p.m. yesterday.

SOLDIER DECLARES HIMSELF TO BE SPY

Detectives Arrest Uniformed Alien for Unsoldierly Conduct

That Edward Christensen, a member of the Royal Canadian Regiment, was guilty of unsoldierly conduct and language was found by his military superiors who sat on his case on Monday, and he was sentenced to ten days' confinement to barracks and ninety days deferred pay.

Christensen is a Dane and has been in the city for the last six months, to the knowledge of the police. He had not been doing anything for a living, and in this way came under the eye of the authorities, in the end being arrested on a charge of theft. When he came before the police magistrate he pleaded for a chance to join the army, and promised if he was let off that he would at once do so. The police watched him and saw that he carried out his word. He enlisted in the R. C. R. and donned the king's uniform.

On Saturday Christensen was in the bar of the Wilson House and was confiding to an acquaintance of his, a native of Sweden, that he had not really enlisted for service or because he desired to fight for the empire, but that he was a spy for the Germans. The man he told could not stand this sort of treachery and was announcing his determination to see that the proper authorities were advised of the soldier's treason when Detectives Turner and Siciliano entered and overheard the conversation. They also heard the man repeat that he was not in the army to fight but for what he could find out.

Christensen was taken in charge by the detectives and held until a military escort came for him and conducted him to Work Point barracks, where he was placed in the guard-house. He was somewhat the worse for liquor when arrested.

At the hearing the witnesses who had heard him in the bar were examined by the court.

FOR SOLDIERS' COMFORT

Concert to Be Held Sunday Evening at Royal Victoria Theatre by United Service Tobacco Fund.

The programme of the concert to be held in the Royal Victoria theatre on Sunday evening next under the auspices of the United Service tobacco fund contains the names of some of the leading musical talent in the city. Reserved seats may be secured by programme, these being purchasable from any members of the committee of the tobacco fund or at the door. The proceeds from the sale of the programmes are to be divided between the tobacco fund and Miss Kathleen Dunsmuir's soup kitchen for the Canadian soldiers at the front.

Names appearing on the programme are H. C. Hughes, Mrs. J. R. Green, Mrs. Macdonald Fahey, H. Davis, H. Kent and R. Macaulay. All these, with the exception of Mrs. Green, will render vocal solos, among some of the pleasing numbers promised being Kipling's "Recessional," to Reginald de Koven's setting, which will be sung by Mrs. Fahey; "Mother o' Mine," to be sung by H. Davis, and "Ailsa Mine" by H. C. Hughes.

The Fifth Regiment band has also kindly offered its assistance for the evening, and will open the programme with the overture to "Tancred." They will play two other numbers, the concluding item on the programme to be a patriotic selection of "British airs." Everyone who attends the concert may feel that they are giving their assistance to a worthy and patriotic cause.

Personals

Mrs. Noah Shakespeare will be at home to her many lady friends next Wednesday from 3 to 6 at 636 Dunedin street.

OBITUARY RECORD

The death took place this morning at her home, 739 Queen's avenue, of Annie Beatrice Helen Hilton. The deceased was 17 years of age, and had lived in the city for the past two years. She was born in South Africa. Besides her father two brothers and a sister survive. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 2 o'clock from the funeral chapel of the Sands Funeral Furnishing company. Rev. Dr. Scott will officiate.

PEACE RIVER DISTRICT STRONG FOR LIBERALS

Meetings in Vancouver Called Off as Tribute to the Gallant Dead

There is much activity among the Liberals of the Peace River district, far as they are from the centre of affairs. The feeling among the settlers in that part of the province, who have got on the land solely through the efforts of the former federal government, is one of hostility to the McBride administration, and the election will vote almost to a man for the Liberal candidate.

At a recent meeting at Ducks, J. P. Shaw, Conservative member and candidate for Kamloops, stated that as a member of the joint commission on Indian affairs "the extensive travel he had undertaken had had a broadening effect on him, enabled him to see how other districts were doing and gave him a better opportunity to understand the condition of the country." Mr. Shaw is one of the members for whose benefit an act or parliament had to be passed to allow him to receive payment for his services in defiance of the Independence of Parliament Act.

The Liberals of Vancouver have called off all political meetings for the week as a mark of respect to the men from that city who fell in recent engagements.

H. S. Clements, M. P. for the present federal constituency of Comox-Atlin, is out with the announcement that he will be a candidate for the Conservative nomination for the new constituency of Skeena. The old constituency is divided among three new ones—Comox-Alberni, Skeena and Atlin. The two latter are, generally, coterminous with the existing provincial constituencies of those names, while the former takes in the mainland portion of the Comox riding south of parallel 51 and east to parallel 124, along which it runs south to the head of Howe Sound.

The Conservative nomination for North Vancouver for the legislature, has gone to George H. Morden. The necessity for choosing another candidate was created by the death of W. C. Gladwin, formerly chief provincial fire warden. It was thought that the nomination would have gone to Charles Nelson, but the choice of Mr. Morden was a sort of compromise. Mr. Nelson and Colonel Whyte were put in nomination, but in the final count Mr. Morden got the majority. The Liberal candidate for the constituency is Mayor Hanes, of North Vancouver city, who is a strong man and should easily defeat any Conservative candidate that could be put in the field.

VISITING BISHOP SPEAKS ON THE WAR

Big Audience at Reformed Episcopal Church Hears Bishop Brewing

"For any nation to sit down in cold blood and scheme for world-power is selfishness itself! It cannot stand! This is a war of ideals. Nietzche, who taught the doctrine of superman, who said that Christianity was the greatest blot on the history of the world because it taught the protection of the weak, became himself in his last days one of the most abject of mankind. God has taken the weak things and the good things of the world to confound the mighty, and little Belgium's king to-day is one of the outstanding figures of the world."

Right Rev. Bishop Brewing, of Toronto, addressing a large congregation at the Reformed Episcopal church last evening on "The War." The subject was dealt with in an exceptionally broad and comprehensive spirit, and at its conclusion a warmly appreciative resolution of thanks was moved by Rev. Dr. Clay and seconded by Rev. T. W. Gladstone, former pastor of the church.

The speaker prefixed his remarks by speaking of some of the more immediate international negotiations prior to the declaration of war. Great Britain had been the last to enlist, only after all the arts of peace had been exhausted. If ever a nation had entered into a war clean-handed and clean-hearted, it was Great Britain.

But there were deeper causes underlying all that transpired in those few weeks before August 3. For fifty years the war boil had been festering on the face of Europe; physical force had been elevated to a place of authority in the world. Germany, a Teuton nation, had a burning desire for world recognition. The Teuton stock felt itself to be capable of great things in commerce, in manufacture. She wanted supremacy in these. She had another desire: to speak in the councils of the world. She backed her desire for utterance with cannon and armaments, expressing, as had been too often expressed the world over, the common idea that man's words carried weight only when backed by physical force.

But two things militated against Germany's purpose: First, she came into the world too late for conquest; second, she was disadvantageously placed with the other nations. But despite these disadvantages she had a supreme appetite for power. Britain, however, stood as a barrier against her hunger for aggrandisement. On this account Germany's hatred reached its acutest expression in the direction of the British empire. And in the Prussian expressions of to-day it was almost refreshing to know exactly what she felt for Britain: Hate, a vision of the empire as an octopus stretching out her multifold tentacles in a strangling grip which was the only bond to hold her to her wide dominions.

The day for which Germany had prayed and longed had come—the day of wrath; of the tearing up of sacred contracts; of the vandalizing of neutral nations. This was the denunciation of those principles of iron and blood which could not stand in any nation.

Later, Bishop Brewing replied briefly to the question which he had heard asked: "Does war pay?" It seemed ridiculous and superfluous to ask such a question when one witnessed the yearly building of dreadnoughts, read the war budgets, witnessed the ruin of cities. All the nations had been carrying a giant burden, non-productive, in preparation for offence or defence. There were men, it was true, who reaped the benefits of war, and got the glory, but did not suffer. The Krupp works at Essen were the greatest in the world. But the output of the factories was for destruction, not for construction.

Again, others said war paid because it brought about the survival of the fittest. Did it? No. It swept away the very flower of manhood; left the weakest and unfittest to carry on the race and the fight. No one would ever know how seriously the United States had been handicapped by the eternal wiping out of the tremendous possibilities of those young men who had to give their lives to bring about the survival of the principle fought for in the Civil War. In Canada we were realizing the price of war to-day. But whether it cost us much or little, the painful operation must be carried through. Germany had maintained that Britain had not the genius of empire. But the struggle now raging disproved this in the impatience shown throughout the wide empire's dominions to rush men to the profection of the motherland. Had Britain had a territory like Alsace-Lorraine, he felt sure that she would long since have assimilated it and taken it into the national life.

And what of the future? Some talked of vengeance. But that was unworthy of Britain, who had ever been generous to her enemies. And there was perhaps good in it all. If vodka were permanently banished from Russia, the war would not have been in vain. If the wave of temperance swept from Russia to Great Britain, the good would be unmeasured. For war killed in its thousands, but intemperance slew its tens of thousands.

There was a greater peace temple yet to be builded than had yet been planned—a temple whose foundations were eternal truth. Not as in the case of the peace temple at The Hague, on the foundations of commerce and trade relationships.

"Shall we go on composing and singing national anthems more exclusive than ever, exalting our nation above all others?" said the speaker in concluding, "or shall we sing songs which exalt true love, true peace, the things alone which can bring about the true federation of the world. With all due respect to the national anthems and the men who wrote them, there are many things expressed in them which were out of harmony with the spirit of international unity, with the spirit of Christ."

ESCAPED SUBMARINE BY GOOD SEAMANSHIP

Victoria Resident Receives News of Son's Narrow Escape

News of his son's narrow escape from a German submarine in the North Sea has been received by Charles Fryatt, residing at 153 Olive street, Victoria. His son is Captain Charles A. Fryatt, commanding a Great Eastern liner operating between Harwich and Holland. His own story of the escape is as follows:

"I sighted a submarine having two masts, and to all appearances a German. It circled to the northward, and then made towards us.

"I immediately altered course to S. E. S. and ordered the engineer to get the utmost speed out of the vessel. All hands were called, and the deckhands sent down to assist the firemen.

"They succeeded in getting up a speed of sixteen knots, so we were able to draw slightly away from the submarine.

"Owing to the proximity of the Schouven Bank on my starboard hand, I was compelled time after time to alter my course to the northward, this keeping the enemy on my port beam, abaft the beam at a distance of about one and a half miles. The submarine kept up the chase until within one mile of the Maas, L. V."

Captain Fryatt noted with sportsmanlike interest: "She was doing well over 14 knots, and chased us 40 miles (nearly three hours).

The captain generously attributed the escape to the work put in by the engineers and firemen, but that his own splendid seamanship had largely to do with the escape is shown by the presentation made to him by the company of a gold watch inscribed: "For courage and skilful seamanship." The watch was presented by Lord Claud Hamilton.

HOME-GROWN BERRIES

Campaign to Be Inaugurated to Bring about Their Use by the Home Consumer.

A publicity campaign is to be undertaken in furtherance of the use of local berries by Victoria and district housewives. A conference on this matter was held yesterday afternoon in the office of R. M. Winslow, provincial horticulturist, which was attended by a number of Vancouver Island strawberry growers.

It was felt that the consumers at home were not dealing fairly with the home producer when imported berries were used for preserving, to the exclusion of the fine fruit that is grown in the Saanich and Gordon Head districts, and which is on the market just at preserving time. This can be put on the Victoria and Vancouver markets on equal terms with any imported fruit, and is immeasurably the better in quality.

Methods of carrying on an advertising campaign were discussed and the matter was left in the hands of R. C. Abbott, coast markets commissioner, for arrangement. It is hoped that his efforts and those of the growers in this connection will be seconded by the consumers, and that the local fruit will be given a preference.

Blood Thin and Weak Too Nervous to Sleep

Here is Another Case in Which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Proved Its Great Reconstructive Influence

Thin blood and exhausted nerves usually go together. A considerable portion of the blood is constantly consumed in keeping up the vitality of the nervous system. Once the blood is deficient, either in quantity or quality, the nerves suffer and bodily pains result. Headache, neuralgic or sciatic pains are the indications in some cases, while in others weakness, nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness are the most marked symptoms.

Mrs. R. F. Catlin, Elm Springs, Sask., writes: "For years I was troubled with nervousness, and could not sleep nights. Also had lack of color as a result of the blood being thin and weak. My husband saw Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advertised, and got some for me, and wanted me to try it. I did so, and it has proven a wonderful help to me. By enriching the blood, it has restored color to my face and has built up the nervous system so that I rest and sleep well. It is a pleasure to recommend so excellent a medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes direct to the formation of pure, rich blood, and for this reason is the most certain means of increasing the quality as well as the quantity of blood in the human system. The feeble, wasted nerves are restored, and through the nervous system new vigor and energy is imparted to every organ and member of the body.

You will be surprised at the way this food cure puts new strength and vitality into the weakened body. And the best of it is that the benefits are both thorough and lasting. In this the Nerve Food differs from mere stimulating medicines which give rise to false hope and when discontinued leave you as weak as before. Put this great restorative treatment to the test and prove its merits in your own cases. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50. All dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
